Government House Guest

Gracie Fields, Lancashire lass whose entertaining ability has gained her fame, fortune and Hollywood stardom, today moved in as guest of Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber until she concludes her Victoria visit on Sunday. The Lieutenant-Governor will honor her tonight with a big formal dinner. Gracie's trip here from Hollywood is another of her contributions to the war. All the returns from her Royal Victoria Theatre performance Friday night will go to the Red Cross. Saturday night 5,000 soldiers, sailors and airmen will be entertained by her at Work Point. Anna Neagle flew up from Hollywood today to join Gracie here.

Break With Japs Feared

LONDON (AP)—Authoritative British sources expressed the fear today that Japanese-British relations might grow "progressively worse," even up to the point where the Japanese would risk military pressure.

These circles, however, expressed the conviction that Japan would not venture into "total war" with Britain because of the possibility of the involvement of other powers—the United States, perhaps, or Russia.

The nature of future Japanese-British relations, it was added, depended on whether the "extremists" within the Japanese government retained the upper hand.

The arrest of 14 Britons in connection with the Japanese investigations of alleged foreign espionage was mentioned as an instance of "extremist" pressure on Britain, following on her concession to Japan closing the Burma arms route to China.

Fumimaro Goes Totalitarian

TOKYO (AP)—The government of Prince Fumimaro Koye announced today a plan for a brand new Japanese state based on a sweeping totalitarianism at home and dedicated to an independent foreign policy which would extend Japan's domination southward over French Indo-China and the Netherlands East Indies.

In a statement the government outlined a strongly centralized and unified state designed for creation of "a new order for greater east Asia," with the "yen bloc"—Japan and her continental satellites whose currencies are based on the yen—as the foundation.

The statement failed to take Japan any closer to the Rome-Berlin axis despite the totalitarianism at home. It pulled Japan away from the other western powers, however, and called for an extensive rearmament program.

No Friendly Moves Toward Democracies

Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka said in an interview that Japan had discarded the policy of trying to win the friendship of "recalcitrant nations." As for the European, he said Japan for the present would maintain a policy of noninvolvement.

"We strike to make whatever friends we can under the prevailing environment," he said, "but henceforth we will not make a vain effort to grasp the hands of those countries which cannot be turned into friends. The government is through with toadyism."

The government's statement coined the phrase "Greater East Asia" in naming the sphere Japan aims to dominate. Previously it had been simply "East Asia," meaning Japan, Manchukuo and the occupied sections of China. Of this Matsuoka said: "Needless to say, the term 'Greater East Asia' includes the South Seas. The final aim is establishment of a stabilizing force for a self-sufficiency embracing not only Japan, Manchukuo and China, but also Indo-China and the East Indies." Today's statement sounded the keynote for future living in Japan, promising to rectify the inequality of present wartime conditions toward "maintenance of a standard of living which will enable the nation to lead a plain, solid and vigorous life and surmount the national crisis by persevering truly through years of hardship."

The War Today

BY GUY RHODES

EXTENDED

Britain extended her blockade today to include all Europe and North Africa, tightening her economic stranglehold on enemy countries and drawing a complaint from Japan that her action would cut into that country's trade with Spain and Portugal.

Meanwhile, there were new indications that Germany might not attempt a direct blitzkrieg against Britain, but might seek rather to impose an effective counter-blockade.

DOVER

Air raids on Britain still were comparatively slack for the third day, but the Germans sought to indicate they would resume them with ferocity at some future date. They said they had completed "preliminary studies" for dive-bombing assaults on United Kingdom ports.

Raids have been carried out for two days on the southeastern port of Dover. The Nazis claim they were designed to make the counter blockade more effective. Actually raids on Dover could have no such purpose.

Dover used to be one of Britain's main jumping-off points for the Continent, but its freight traffic was unimportant. Its main function during the war has been to base the famous second Dover patrol.

Most of its civil population was evacuated weeks ago and a considerable portion of its military and naval forces live in the storied chalk cliffs which were chambered to resist an attempted French invasion at the time of William Pitt the Younger. Persons living in these cliffs are practically invulnerable.

PORTS

The Germans sought also to attach great importance to attacks on the Thames estuary. The Port of London, in peace-time the world's great harbor, has been comparatively unimportant since the start of the war. As Ronald Cross, Minister of Shipping, indicated last night, Britain has developed plans through which she can shift her import business rapidly from one port to another, and she has plenty of ports.

Much of the import trade which normally flowed into London was shifted elsewhere at the very beginning of the war and a pedestrian strolling down either Thames bank through Wapping or Southwark would be startled by the scarcity of those old rusty ships which jammed the docks in peacetime.

On the other side of the narrow

Final Bulletins

$11,000 RAISED FOR RED CROSS

While an audited statement will not be available for several days, pending ticket and other returns, approximately $11,000 will be realized as the result of yesterday's huge Red Cross gala at Government House, according to the first estimates made this morning by officials in charge. This does not include the $1,750 received from Princess Chikma-toff for the purchase of an ambulance.

Mental Lapse Disaster

AKRON, O. (AP)—A Pennsylvania railroad official this afternoon said an "inexplicable mental lapse" on the part of an engineer caused a head-on crash between his gasoline-electric railroad coach and a double-header freight train in which 43 persons met fiery death last night.

F. W. Krick, division superintendent, testifying at the coroner's inquest, said Engineer Thomas L. Murtough, 49, had been on the run since 1923.

Salmon Pack Up

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia's sockeye salmon pack of the current season shows an increase of more than 64,000 cases, about 40 per cent over the pack at the same time last year, according to figures released here today by the Dominion Bureau of Fisheries.

waters between Britain and her enemies the radio stations at Bremen and Hamburg went dead for the second successive day, indicating the Royal Air Force was bombing or threatening to bomb the two cities. The Germans cut their radio stations off the air whenever British planes are believed approaching, because the navigators can use the radio signals as a directional beam.

Sometimes British radio fans listening to German radio musical programs or to the celebrated "Lord Haw-Haw of Zees" can hear the station go off after a shout in the studio of "achtung" (look out).

New developments were believed likely to arise in the Orient in the wake of an interview in which Japan's new Premier, Prince Fumimaro Koye, declared his country intended to establish "a new order for greater east Asia." It was the first time the word "greater" was used in such a connection and it was believed Japan had designs on the Netherlands East Indies, French Indo-China and possibly other territories of the South Seas.

MEIGHEN WANTS INSURANCE DELAY

OTTAWA (CP)—Conservative Leader Meighen in the Senate late this afternoon moved an amendment that the unemployment insurance bill should not come into force until the termination of the present war. "I cannot believe," said Senator Meighen, "that the government actually intends to operate this measure while the war is on." The bill was sent to the Senate from committee in amended form. One amendment provides for exemption from the measure of about 9,000 hospital employees and employees of charitable institutions.

Prorogation Rush

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King today gave notice in the House votes and proceedings that the Commons will sit each Saturday morning and afternoon until prorogation of Parliament.

NOW BRIGADIER

Further advancement in the Canadian Active Service Force has been made by a Victorian, Col. D. Roy Sargent, who now has been appointed brigadier in command of the 6th Infantry Brigade, Second Division.

Brigadier Sargent will see service in England in this command, it is expected, because Ottawa has announced all of the second division will be sent overseas. The 6th Infantry Brigade, Second Battalion of the Canadian Scottish Regiment and then the regiment when he became a full colonel. He was posted to the second division at the end of May.

Anna Neagle Flies Here to Join Gracie

Anna Neagle, 32, lovely British screen star, stepped off a Canadian Airways plane at Esquimalt this afternoon and said she was thrilled to be here.

Flashing her famous smile, revealing pearly white teeth, the famous lead of "Victoria the Great," said it was wonderful to be able to do something for the Navy League, for "I have a brother in the navy," she answered. Tomorrow night she will appear at the Royal Victoria Theatre with Gracie Fields.

"Yes, I'm going to sing 'Alicia Blue Gown,'" she said. "David Thimmar will be with me." A. M. D. Fairbairn, private secretary at Government House, was there to invite her to luncheon, but Miss Neagle declined.

She wore a blue draped dress, with a blue straw toque, with a blue veil and white pom-pom. Her jacket coat was of summer ermine. Her shoes were blue pumps, with the toes out. She carried a large blue bag, and at her throat was a Royal Air Force clasp in diamonds. Her gloves were white.

This afternoon Miss Neagle met Gracie Fields, who went to Government House for luncheon. Together they planned tomorrow evening's program. Miss Fields, after being mobbed at the boat and at Government House yesterday afternoon, spent a quiet evening in her suite at the Empress. This morning she walked in the gardens in the sunshine and at noon had her picture taken with some members of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team. Then she drove to Government House, where she will remain with His Honor and Mrs. Hamber until her departure for Vancouver Sunday afternoon.

Miss Neagle said she would be able to appear only in Victoria and Vancouver and then had to return to Hollywood to start work on another picture.

Among those who met her were Commander C. H. R. Slingsby, E. Stonham, Reeve's Alex. Lockley of Esquimalt, Capt. W. Hobart Molson, Col. J. Lightbody and Brian Burdon-Murphy, who is managing tomorrow night's show as his contribution to the Red Cross.

Richard Greene Here

Victoria movie fans are being given thrill after thrill these days. Yesterday they gave a royal welcome to Gracie Fields. At noon today they went to Esquimalt to greet Anna Neagle.

From there they had to rush to the C.P.R. docks to welcome Richard Greene, young English film star who has come to Victoria to join the Canadian army.

The most excited person on the dock today was Richard Greene's mother, Mrs. Kathleen Gerrard.

Young Greene, who is 23, said some kilted regiment for overseas service. But kilts have been appointed.

Nazis Bombed

LONDON (CP)—The Air Ministry and Ministry for Home Security announced tonight:

"A single enemy aircraft flying at a great height crossed the east coast this afternoon and later dropped its bombs in Norwich, causing some damage to industrial premises and a number of civilian casualties, five of which were fatal."

"Elsewhere enemy activity has been confined to occasional flights over the English Channel, where two enemy aircraft were shot down by our fighters this evening. One of our fighters has failed to return from patrol."

While these operations were in progress the fact that both the Hamburg and Bremen radio stations went off the air shortly before noon was taken as an indication of daylight Royal Air Force bombing raids on Nazi targets for the second successive day.

There were scattered raids mostly by small groups of long range bombers, over most sections of England throughout the night and this morning. Although comparatively large numbers of high explosive and incendiary bombs were reported dropped, apparently most of them fell in open fields, for there were few reports of damage and none of casualties.

One incendiary bomb struck the roof of a ward in a hospital near a southeastern town. The resulting blaze was extinguished so quickly that it was not necessary to move patients.

Residents of northern Ireland heard gunfire and the roar of motors for half an hour yesterday, but saw no planes.

Three Nazi aircraft were believed shot down last night, one near the sea and two inland.

Withdrawal of civilians from areas in east Anglia, east and northeast of London, and on the southeastern coast was ordered tonight by the Minister of Home Security as a measure further to tighten Britain's defences.

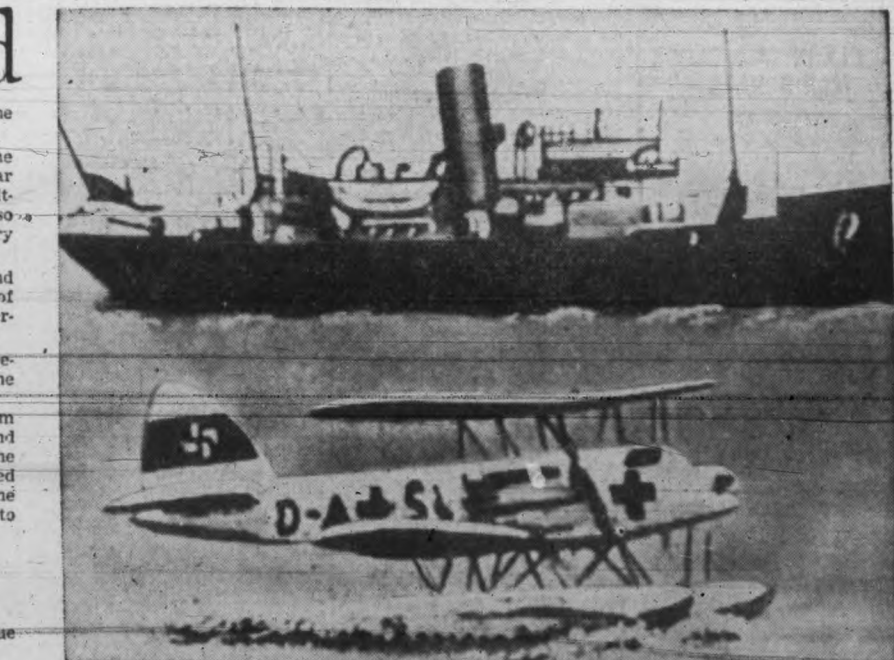

Oil Plants, Ships Pounded by British

An Air Ministry communique tonight said:

"Yesterday R.A.F. aircraft of the bomber command carried out daylight attacks on military objectives in Germany and shipping off the Dutch and German coasts."

Our bombers were engaged by enemy fighters, two of which were shot down. One of our bombers is missing.

Car Executive Visits Victoria

Car sales throughout Canada will not be substantially affected by the increased war taxes, in the opinion of A. F. Jenkins, sales manager of Willys of Canada Ltd., Windsor, Ontario, who is a visitor at the Empress Hotel today.

"The very slight increase in the cost of cars that will result from the new taxes will be accepted by the purchaser as a patriotic contribution," Mr. Jenkins said to the Times today.

"So far as the lower-priced automobile is concerned, war taxes will not result in any appreciable increase."

Mr. Jenkins is accompanied by W. S. Tempest, Calgary, western representative of the Willys firm and M. B. Meredith of Meredith Motors, Vancouver, Willys distributors for British Columbia.

While in Victoria Mr. Jenkins is in consultation with Mr. "Gus" Masters, proprietor of Masters Motor Company Limited, 809 Yates Street, Willys dealers for Victoria.

Mr. Jenkins is most favorably impressed by the scenery of Vancouver Island and has taken particular note of the increased activity in the logging business as well.

A. F. JENKINS

he has seen this evidenced in a motor tour between Nanaimo and Victoria.

On a tour of the western provinces, Mr. Jenkins finds that sales of Willys automobiles have more than doubled during the current year.

He attributes the greater demand for cars to Canada's economic speed-up, need for efficient transportation and the desire of most Canadians to travel in their own country.

Mr. Jenkins revealed that Willys Overland Motors Inc. recently entered the munitions and armament field. A separate corporation has been formed and as much of the war work from the British commission in New York and the United States government as possible will be handled.

Mr. Jenkins will leave for Vancouver tonight on the midnight boat. He will fly east, visiting Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg in the course of his return to his headquarters at Windsor.

Pétain Takes Away Citizenship Of Many French

BERLIN (AP Via Radio)—A long list of prominent Frenchmen have been ordered deprived of their citizenship and their properties confiscated, the German wireless said today.

The list, the first since the Petain regime decreed action against those who left France "without valid reasons" between May 10 and June 30, includes two members of the internationally-known Rothschild banking family. It was broadcast by the government station at Vichy and picked up here.

The two Rothschilds are Baron Edouard, head of the French branch of the family's banking operations, and Baron Maurice, a member of the French senate. (Baron Maurice de Rothschild arrived in Montreal this week with a cousin, Baron Robert de Rothschild, the latter's wife and daughter, after having taken temporary refuge in Britain. Baron Edouard, his business and their daughter arrived in New York July 10 by clipper plane.)

SEVERAL CLASSES.

Others on the list are some of France's leading industrialists, political leaders and journalists. Among them are deputies Henri Mayer of the international banking firm of Lazare Freres; and Edouard Jonas, widely-known Paris antique dealer; Louis Rosengart, automobile manufacturer; M. Solecki, one of France's largest hat makers; Raoul Buchard, a lead industrialist; M. Hysman and M. Coen, directors of the Beaux Arts and National Library; M. Levitan, furniture and radio magnate; and Louis Louis-Freyfus, banker and importer.

Journalists included are Elie J. Bois, publisher of Le Petit Parisien; Madame Genevieve Tabouis, foreign editor of L'Ouvrier; Pierre Lazareff and Joseph Kessel of the Paris-Soir; Henri de Kerillis and Andre Geraud.

(Geraud, who writes under the name "Pétainax," and Madame Tabouis are in the United States.)

ASKED TO EXPLAIN

"Persons in this list may yet try to explain why they left France between May 10 and June 30 in order to retain their French citizenship and prevent confiscation of their property," the Vichy radio said.

PEACHEY NAMED C.I.D. INSPECTOR

B.C. police officers well known in Victoria are concerned in promotions and transfers now approved by the Attorney-General, effective today.

Sub-Inspector Roger Peachey, of the Criminal Investigation Department, is promoted to be full inspector in charge of the branch. He has directed the criminal investigation of the force for several years.

Staff Sergeant E. Gammon of Prince Rupert is made sub-inspector in charge of the division and Inspector G. Barker of Prince Rupert will move to Kamloops in charge of "C" division.

Staff Sergeant Richard Harvey, now at Kamloops, will move to Vancouver as sub-inspector and assistant to Assistant Commissioner John Sherrars. Sub-Inspector Harvey was a popular officer in Victoria for years when stationed with A division.

Major Nicholson, Zeballos, is J.P.

Major George Nicholson of Zeballos has been appointed a justice of the peace by provincial order.

Robert C. Weld of Qualicum was named a stipendiary magistrate in place of Ernest C. Catling.

William Harris of Lillooet was appointed stipendiary magistrate and judge of the juvenile court, replacing G. J. Sumner of Shalalth.

Robert B. Wallace of Greenwood was named a justice of the peace.

5 Saskatoon Candidates

SASKATOON (CP)—Nomination of Alfred H. Bence, Saskatoon alderman and barrister, by the Conservative Party to contest the Saskatoon federal by-election August 19, brought the list of candidates to five. Mr. Bence obtained the nomination in a contest with F. R. MacMillan, federal member for Saskatoon from 1930 to 1935.

Other candidates already in the field were: Miss Agnes MacPhail, United Reform Movement; M. P. Hayes, Liberal; Miss Wilna Moore, Independent; and Eddie Williams, Independent Liberal.

R.A.F. Blasts Post, Sinks 2 Submarines

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—An R.A.F. communiqué today said: "In the last two days enemy concentrations in the vicinity of Kassala (Anglo-Egyptian Sudan) were subjected to intensive bombing raids by R.A.F. aircraft. On July 30 the raids continued from early morning until dusk and yesterday two further attacks were made on military objectives within the target area.

"Severe damage was done to troop concentrations and machine gun and anti-aircraft ports. In all, 10 separate raids were made. All our aircraft returned safely.

"During a raid on Macaca direct hits were registered on two hangars, which were followed by large clouds of smoke.

"A single enemy bomber, escorted by a large formation of fighters, flew over Malta yesterday. Our fighters immediately engaged the enemy. The bomber turned back, but one of the enemy aircraft was shot down into the sea."

Another communiqué, announcing the sinking of two Italian submarines, said:

"On the first occasion an aircraft on patrol duty sighted a submarine on the surface. The pilot immediately attacked, the first salvo of bombs exploding so close to the stern of the submarine that in all probability its screw and hydroplane were damaged.

"The submarine attempted to submerge first, but the damage evidently was severe for it manoeuvred clumsily. Meanwhile the squadron leader in charge of the plane dropped a second salvo when the submarine was at conning tower depth, scoring direct hits about the conning tower.

"The submarine now was completely submerged, but the attack continued, the final salvo crashing into the water at the U-boat's estimated position. The craft cruised over the spot a considerable time while air bubbles rose and a large patch of oil formed."

"The other action occurred three days ago when R.A.F. planes rushed to the attack on sighting a submarine, dropping two salvos. The first fell 15 yards astern, but the second hit the target, the conning tower. Nothing more was seen of the submarine but a patch of oil a half a mile square rapidly formed on the surface while air bubbles rose for a long time."

BRITISH REMOVE ROAD BARRIERS

LONDON (CP)—A change in plans to defend Britain was disclosed today by an order of the new commander-in-chief, Gen. Sir Alan Brooke, to remove many of the barriers which have been erected across roads throughout the island.

The order, reflecting a return to the traditional theory that attack is the best defence, calls for removal of the steel and concrete barriers to permit rapid movement of troops to any threatened sector.

The removal already is under way in north England, where all double road blocks have been ordered eliminated and single ones cut back.

These blocks were built to leave only a narrow zigzag passage which could be closed at a moment's notice.

The barriers were erected hurriedly two months ago at every point where it was thought German troop transport planes might be able to land in an attempt to seize strategic communication networks. At that time, when comparatively few trained British soldiers remained in Britain, barricade to trained defence by available troops was considered advisable.

Now, observers explained, a trained and equipped army of several million men has converted the island into an armed camp. Therefore, barricades were considered not only unnecessary but a possible handicap which might act to an invader's advantage by preventing rapid shifting of British troops and supplies.

Canada-U.S. Treaty For Defence Urged

NEW YORK (CP)—The influential New York Herald Tribune advocated a treaty of mutual defence between the United States and Canada.

In its leading editorial, the Herald Tribune said the United States "for its own protection and to implement the Monroe Doctrine" should institute negotiations.

"The status of Canada makes possible the writing of such a treaty without involvement in the European war," it added. "Though a member of the British Empire, the Dominion is a sovereign nation and could enter into such a treaty without in anywise compromising her allegiance to England; and treaty could be so drawn as to bring this country into action only when this hemisphere was directly attacked."

Recommendations to Commons

New Rules to Govern Aliens in Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Amendments to the Defence of Canada Regulations dealing with the registration and internment of enemy aliens are recommended in the final report of the special committee of the House of Commons which reviewed the regulations at 25 meetings, held in camera.

The report was tabled in the House today by Finance Minister J. L. Halsey, chairman of the committee.

"The report said it was the unanimous view 'that all measures should be taken which were considered necessary for the safety of Canada, but that the maximum amount of liberty under the law should be maintained consistent therewith.'"

Prime Minister Mackenzie King told Conservative Leader R. B. Hanson the regulations would be consolidated and reprinted with all amendments as soon as possible. This was recommended by the committee and Mr. Hanson considered it important in view of the fact the committee's report might not be concurred in by the House this session.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1922, MARK

If the committee's recommendations are adopted, British subjects of German or Italian origin, naturalized after September 1, 1922, will be required to register along with enemy aliens. At present such persons are required to register if naturalized after September 1, 1929.

Court hearings on applications for naturalization by enemy aliens should be stopped, the committee stated. No certificates of naturalization are now being issued to German or Italian applicants for citizenship, but the committee found confusion was caused by the fact that courts continued to hear applications.

MORE IMPRESSIVE

"Your committee is of opinion measures should be taken to invest the important step of naturalization with greater solemnity and to impress upon those who apply for the privilege the importance of the obligations which they assume as British subjects," the report said.

"Your committee therefore recommends that at the next session of Parliament a special committee of the House be appointed to consider and review the law relating to naturalization . . . The special committee should review as well the law relating to deportation and again consider and review the Defence of Canada Regulations."

MONTHLY REPORTS

Regular reports should be made to Parliament on the number of persons interned, the committee said. To this end it suggested an amendment to the regulations to require the Minister of Justice to report every four weeks the number of people detained and the number of cases, if any, in which the minister declined to follow the advice of any advisory committee on the release or detention of persons.

"An amendment to preserve the rights of persons engaged in lawful strikes is recommended to the clause of the regulations dealing with sabotage in impeding the operations of ships, vehicles, machinery or apparatus used in insufficiently prepared in the air."

There was not a single thing in this story the Senator declared by way of criticism if prewar policy which had not been said hundreds of times in Britain itself.

He continued that when Senator Meighen dramatically arises in this House and calls this short story poison, and when he adds, as he does, that if the writer had written this story in Canada he would have been punished or hanged, then I suggest, to put it mildly, that he is letting his sense of the dramatic run away with him."

He contended the story contained nothing but the kindest references to the great mass of the British people.

In view of the great position which Senator Meighen occupied, Senator Huggesson continued, "I am grieved that he should have made that story the basis of what I consider to be a totally unmerited attack upon the journal in which the story appears."

OFFICIAL COMMENT

Persons convicted of offences under the regulations should not be allowed bail pending the hearing of appeals, the committee recommended.

If also suggested the regulations as amended be reprinted as soon as possible in order to provide persons concerned with clear and accurate information on them and that all orders or rules of general effect made under the regulations be published in the Canada Gazette.

Senators Clash Over Post Story

OTTAWA—Opposition Leader Meighen and Senator A. K. Huggesson duelled wordily in the Senate over the question of banning the Saturday Evening Post. Senator Meighen said "get rid of it." Senator Huggesson defended the publication and Government Leader Dandurand reported a censor's opinion the magazine should not be banned.

The centre of the controversy was a story by Paul Gallico called "Wings of Atonement," appearing in a recent issue of the magazine.

OPPOSITE EFFECT

Senator Huggesson found little justification for Senator Meighen's attack on the story. He thought that rather than "undermining the war spirit" as the Conservative leader suggested, it would have the opposite effect. It was not an article, it was fiction.

In the report from the censors it was pointed out that the Saturday Evening Post had "again and again" published articles friendly to Canada, that in the issue in question any adverse effect of the story was offset by an article describing the fall of the German publishing house of Ullstein, and that only one other voice had been raised to their knowledge beside that of Senator Meighen.

SAID IN BRITAIN ITSELF

Senator Huggesson, defending Mr. Gallico's story said, "I agree that it is not perfect reading for us of the British Empire. And I agree too that in its admitted capacity as fiction this story occasionally outruns the facts but I do say that it contains a large element of truth, however unpleasant that truth may be.

"This story repeats what each one of us has been saying these last few months, that Britain was joined the Royal Air Force as a gunner. He now was reported missing and was presumably dead.

CENSORS' REPORT

Senator Dandurand's report from the censors said one censor having read "Wings of Atonement" had considered it objectionable in nature but did not think it sufficient warrant for banning the magazine.

Aside from Senator Meighen's statement and the editorial of the Whig-Standard the censors were not aware of other demands for banning.

The censors, said the government leader, were in receipt of a letter from W. Rupert Davies publisher of the Whig-Standard in which, replying to a letter from them, the publisher had said, "I think you are taking a common sense view . . . the Gallico story was irritating to one of our editorial writers."

The censors based their attitude toward the magazine, Senator Dandurand noted, on several considerations such as that the Post had published much pro-British and pro-Ally material and had carried exposés of Nazi operations, that visitors entering from the United States with the Saturday Evening Post would be much incensed by having the magazine confiscated and that a ban would necessarily have to be followed up with a ban on nearly all leading publications in the United States.

Senator Meighen asked if an afternoon might be taken for further debate on the subject and Senator Dandurand said he "was always glad" to meet his honorable friend.

BRITAIN TO CARRY WAR INTO GERMANY

DUDLEY, Eng. (CP)—L. C. M. S. Amery, Secretary of State for India, believes Britain soon will gain command of the air as well as the sea and carry the war into Germany.

"The amazing resources, skill and energy" of the United States, which, "if not a belligerent is something more than a cold interested spectator," will be called on to build up British strength, Mr. Amery said in a speech last night.

"We do not ask her to fight our battle even if we may think that in a sense it is her battle too," he said, but "we look to her to allow us to draw upon her to supplement our material deficiencies.

"While we are growing in strength from month to month, our enemy already has passed the peak of his power and his resources. His very successes added to his difficulties. Every country he conquered has to be kept down by force.

"On the thousands of miles of seacoast he has now got to keep an incessant watch against an adversary who holds unchallenged control of the sea, who we believe soon will hold command of the air as well."

He recalled that it took Britain 10 years after Trafalgar to defeat Napoleon because Britain was not strong enough on land. Now with a growing air force things should be different. In addition the blockade should be more effective because Hitler will have a whole starving continent to feed.

Urges Voice for Canada in Foreign Policy

Angus MacInnis Speaks

OTTAWA (CP)—Discussing foreign policy in the Commons last night, Angus MacInnis, C.C.F., Vancouver East, submitted that such policy should not be left to one partner in the Empire to decide, when all parts of the Empire would take part whenever that policy led to war.

"The Dominion Government should have the courage to say whether it was in the Empire or out of it. It was not enough for the Canadian Government to say it had been consulted but had expressed no opinion, declared the B.C. member as he continued debate on the statements made by the war ministers earlier this week.

This war would not be won by military organization alone or Canada would win the war and lose the peace, as it did last time. There had to be developed social and economic organization which would provide real freedom for the people.

He said that as long as the government appoints to war boards industrialists who are opposed to trade unionism and social improvements, there can be little wonder at the people's suspicions that any real democracy will exist at the war's end.

"The first thing Hitler did when he took power in Germany, and more recently in the conquered countries was to destroy the trade unions and the Social Democratic Party," he said as debate continued on the statement made by the war ministers this week.

Employees of some business members of the munitions board dared not belong to a trade union or to the C.C.F., openly, he said. He cited G. C. Bateman, metals controller, as an illustration of his complaint. Mr. Bateman was president of the Mining and Metallurgical Institute and secretary of the Ontario Gold Mines Association. In a minority report on a labor dispute at Teck Hughes Mine, Mr. Bateman had questioned the wisdom of organization of labor, and suggested Canadian citizens at present had more important things to do.

"To win democracy in Germany must we postpone democracy at home?" asked Mr. MacInnis. "The place to begin is at home. Then we will have some right to take up the fight on a world scale."

Mr. MacInnis said labor should have been represented on the war supply board.

The Prime Minister asked if Mr. MacInnis was taking into account the advisory labor committee.

Mr. MacInnis said he was; it was half industrialist and half labor.

"If there are half industrialists on the labor advisory council, why not name half labor members on the other boards?" he asked. All the wisdom and ability was not in the owners of big business in Canada.

COMPULSORY SERVICE
Karl Homuth, Conservative, South Waterloo, Ont., said the government had promised no conscription, but now it was introducing conscription, regardless of what it tried to call it.

Jean Francois Pouliot, Liberal, Temiscouata, Que., said the government should not only refuse to accept any suggestions from the Conservative Party, but should dismiss "all the stupid asses who have been put in high positions by the administration of which the present opposition leader was a member."

Fingerprinting of soldiers as a means of identification was urged by Dr. H. A. Bruce, Conservative, Toronto-Parkdale.

Secret Sitting Of House Urged

By CARL REINKE

OTTAWA (CP)—Statements from key ministers on Canada's war endeavor, while softening opposition criticism in the House of Commons, have failed to silence demands for full details of the war picture.

"Until we know exactly what the situation is, we as a democratic Parliament have not discharged our duty to the people of Canada," said Conservative Leader R. B. Hanson yesterday during discussion of defence estimates.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F., Roseville-Biggar, Sask., went farther and renewed the call frequently heard for a secret meeting of Parliament to review more fully military and diplomatic activity.

J. H. Blackmore, New Democracy leader, in his turn, wanted more information about the government's war progress on the economic front.

Early in the week, introducing the war statements from the ministers, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said the government would consider representations for a secret sitting if members felt the situation had not been adequately reviewed. He did not favor the idea then, however, and he gave no encouragement to Mr. Coldwell's suggestion.

asked for a statement from the government showing the total commitments of the munitions and supply department. He also asked that regulations under which men will be called for military services be laid on the table.

ATTITUDE OF U.S.

Discussing United States relations, Capt. George Black, Conservative, Yukon, said that country had been a good neighbor in the past, but it had not been neighborly in placing a high discount on Canadian money since the war started, or in demanding that Canadians must have passports when entering the United States.

Commenting on the proposal to call men up for 30 days' training, Capt. Black said it was impossible to teach a recruit anything in that period, and it would be a waste of time.

"If you are going to call men up keep them long enough to make soldiers of them," he said. Early in the war, Capt. Black said, a number of men in the Yukon wanted to go overseas, and he had forwarded their offer to the district commander and offered to go with them.

"The district officer commanding made the astonishing reply that these men could come to Vancouver at their own expense and return home at their own expense if found unfit," Capt. Black said. Many had gone to Vancouver, but had been unable to get in the army and had returned home.

Commander Creery Reaches Canada

AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—Commander Wallace B. Creery, R.C.N., who was in command of H.M.C.S. Fraser when she was sunk in collision six weeks ago off France, arrived here yesterday from England.

On the same ship were 35 Canadian and Newfoundland sailors, returning from four months' training with the Royal Navy.

43 Train Deaths Laid to Driver

AKRON, O. (AP)—Railroad investigators today blamed an engineman's failure to follow operating orders for the fiery deaths of 43 persons in 1940's second major United States train wreck.

They said failure to sidetrack a gasoline-electric coach led it to crash head-on with a double-engine 73-car freight train near here last night. The steel coach instantly became a virtual furnace.

The coach's single engineman, Thomas L. Murtough, 49, was blamed by L. M. Wolcott, Cleveland trainmaster for the Pennsylvania Railroad, on whose single-track Hudson-Akron Line the crash occurred. Murtough, seriously injured, was unable to tell his story.

FOR SOME REASON

Wolcott, watching crews clear away the wreckage, declared: "The crew of the doodlebug" (the gasoline coach) and the crews of the freight train had orders to meet at Silver Lake, one mile north of the scene, and wait for the freight to pass. Murtough should have taken his train on the siding there. For some reason he did not go on the siding."

The freight train, northbound from Columbus, O., telescoped the fore end of the 222,000-pound coach, and shoved it back in its wake for 200 yards. Flames erupted from the windows as its 250-gallon gasoline tanks exploded. Firemen poured water into the coach. Then they and volunteers went about the two-hour task of removing bodies, many so burned that identification was difficult.

Coroner R. E. Amos, seeking to clear up the identifications, said the passengers "didn't have a chance in the world" to escape.

JUMPED THROUGH FLAMES

The engine crews of the two freight locomotives were injured, but not seriously.

O. M. Lodge of Columbus, O., engineer on the lead locomotive, said:

"We just came around the bend in the road when I saw the gas-electric locomotive in front of us. We jammed on the brakes and there was a terrific explosion. E. Reynolds, my fireman, stayed with her through the fire and explosion until she came to a stop, then we jumped through a wall of flame that had surrounded the whole wreckage."

English Stars to Make War Relief Movie

HOLLYWOOD—The British colony in Hollywood is going to produce a picture and the proceeds will go to the British War Relief Fund. The cast will include most of the top British players, including Laurence Olivier, Charles Laughton, Ronald Colman, Vivien Leigh and Charlie Chaplin.

Some 'Explanations'

BOTH IN GERMANY AND ITALY DURing the last few days certain selected journals of the controlled press have intimated to the people of the two totalitarian countries that an immediate invasion of the British Isles in force may not be feasible, that a good deal of "preparatory work" still remains to be done, and that, in any case, when the assault is launched it will be met with stout resistance on sea, air and land.
In the editorial columns of Il Giornale d'Italia
—Mussolini's journalistic mouthpiece—yesterday, for example, Virginio Gayda explained to the Italian people that it would be more or less ridiculous for them to think of a repetition of the "spectacular and lightning-like" campaign which reduced France to impotence in a few weeks. Rather must they content themselves with the "disorganizing" and "pulverizing" process which, the smug editor boastfully proclaims, Germany is applying to vital parts of Britain.

While this task is being performed, moreover, Italy proposes to "engage" and "wear down" the British naval forces in the Mediterranean, the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean.
Presumably this is part of the "token role" the German Fuehrer has condescended to allot to his axis partner in the general scheme of annihilating Britain and the British Empire. Remembering Adowa, Caporetta and Guadalajara, however, and not forgetting the Italian navy's apparent disinclination to embark on its "engaging" and "wearing down" processes, it was scarcely likely the Nazi chief would feel inclined to leave much important work to his friend in Rome.

The timing of Il Giornale d'Italia's semi-official "explanation" to the Italian people—Nazi Labor leader Robert Ley last Sunday warned Germans, in effect, that the invasion of Britain would not be all "beer and skittles"
—may serve at least two specific purposes:
The principal axis partner may have suddenly realized that Germany's domination of a coastline stretching from the Arctic Circle to Cape Finisterre is a good advertisement of inevitable for home consumption; but that until the Nazi high command is quite sure the people of the occupied territory will not become obstreperous, as food supplies dwindle, it would be better to concentrate on the "disorganizing" and "pulverizing" processes hailed by editor Gayda as the best, or only, course for the time being. There is just the possibility, on the other hand, that behind Il Giornale d'Italia's editorial lies some new surprise which the two gangsters hope will give them further advantage before climatic conditions around the coast of the British Isles condemn them irrevocably to another winter of the type of war that will impose great hardship on all the peoples east of the long Atlantic sea coast line.

Gayda's explanation, of course, furnishes an obvious commentary. The entrance of King Victor's country into the war was timed to coincide with what the Italian people were promised—a quick and complete totalitarian victory which would insure for them the realization of all the dreams of the man who drove the stiletto into the back of a neighbor.
And were these people not told by the same Virginio Gayda a little more than two weeks ago that Britain would have to choose between the "renovating, restorative forces of Europe or extremely grim, violent war" in which her "overthrow" would be measured not by years or weeks of which Prime Minister Churchill spoke recently, but "by days or hours"? Mussolini, therefore, must keep his 42,000,000 Italians in a calm mood if he is to take even his "token part" in the attempt to bring Britain to her knees. In a day or so we may know what really was behind these Nazi and Fascist "explanations" of delay.

Familiar Objectors

OFFICIALS OF THE CANADIAN MANUfacturers' Association and the Canadian Chamber of Commerce want the Unemployment Insurance measure held over for further investigation before the Senate adds its approval to that of the House of Commons.
A representative of the latter body bases his organization's plea for more time on the following points:

1. The fear that the plan diverted funds from the war.
2. The fear that unemployment insurance might spread to unemployment relief.
3. The fear that the bill would tend to increase costs and prices.
4. A belief that costs of manufacture should be kept down in consideration of export markets.

Points one and two fall of their own weakness. Points three and four are familiar ones with both the Association and the Chamber; tariff policies advocated and supported by them, particularly between 1930 and 1935, were responsible for very serious reductions in Canada's export and import trade.
Another argument for delay has been advanced by an eminent consulting actuary,
Mr. Hugh H. Wolfenden, who was not consulted on this measure as he was on Mr.
Bennett's abortive scheme of five years ago.
That was satisfactory; the bill before the Senate now is the only "Bennett scheme."
Will he tell us that the industrial fabric of Canada today is less financially able to shoulder unemployment insurance than it was in 1935—when our external trade had dropped to one-third of the 1930 total?

A Notable Fete

VICTORIA'S READINESS TO SUPPORT a good cause was once again demonstrated yesterday at Government House.
Very nearly 9,000 people flocked to the Red Cross garden party, constituting a record in attendance and, according to present estimates, contributing a record sum. The women's organizations and the service clubs entered into the spirit of the affair, as soon as the plan was mooted. Thanks to the flair for organization shown by Mrs. Charles E.
Wilson, the indefatigable and resourceful general convenor, and her band of hard-working executive assistants, no effort was spared to ensure the enjoyment of the huge crowd. The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs.
Hamber, of course, did the honors with that matchless geniality and lavish hospitality which has come to be a synonym of their regime. And the presence of Gracie Fields added the dash of spice which gave the final touch of perfection to an amazingly successful undertaking—of which everyone concerned may well be proud.

Soft Words From Moscow

RUSSIA'S FOREIGN COMMISSAR Vyacheslav Molotov told the seventh session of the Supreme Soviet today that recent events in Europe had only improved the relations between his country and Germany. This brief announcement conforms with the tone of recent suggestions that British Ambassador Sir Stafford Cripps had failed to make headway in the scheme for a new trade agreement between Britain and Russia, and that today's gathering would be marked principally by a pronouncement similar to that which has reached us, and which, as this is written, has not been embellished by much explanation.

It is not to be expected, of course, that Russia will force the pace in the diplomatic field or in the military realm so long as her territorial and political aspirations are realizable without much trouble. Her absorption of Bessarabia and Bukovina, followed by the gathering into the fold of her domi-on the former independent states of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia, and the latest suggestion that she may annex Finland, have met with little or no visible objection from Germany. Stalin has employed Hitler's technique; he saw the Nazi chief with his hands full with Britain, knew the last thing his friend in Berlin wanted was trouble in the Balkans, so he played his hand accordingly.
Certainly recent events in Europe have improved the relations between the two who will soon be celebrating the first anniversary of their "marriage of convenience."

Britain has not been fooled by Russia in recent days. She has expected no assistance, passive or otherwise, save that which might have been afforded her by the various moves the Moscow government has made and still may make in its own interests. Nor will the Molotov pronouncement fool Germany. Hitler knows that Stalin is watching him like a cat watches a mouse. Russia wants no military adventure in the Balkans at this stage either.
But her relations with her Nazi neighbor will improve or deteriorate only as Hitler responds to future "requests" that may be expected from Stalin. Perhaps the Moscow government intends to cheer the Axis partners on to their invasion of Britain—knowing the nature of the task ahead of them—in the hope that still another opportunity may occur for the Georgian dictator further to capitalize his advantageous political and territorial position.

Tell the People

ONE THING SHOULD BE MADE PERfectly clear to the Parliament at Ottawa before it prorogues. Its members and the people of Canada should be told whether this country is supplying materials to Japan which she requires to assist her in her attempt to overrun and ruin China—materials which, in the light of the delicate relations between her and Great Britain, may be used against the British Empire—and what is being done or will be done to put an end to such traffic, if it exists. If the Dominion is not supplying Japan with such materials —and they do not require itemizing—the public should be informed. Questions asked in the House of Commons on this subject have obviously created a doubt in the minds of all those who realize the necessity of facing facts. No good purpose will be served by evading the issue.

U.S. TAKES BRITISH CHILDREN

From Ottawa Citizen
According to cabled information from London, space for 1,000 children has been allotted in ships bound for North American ports within the next few weeks. The committee chairman, Marshall Field, has instructed committee representatives in London to make sure that the group shall be "a representative cross-section of children including those of poorer families."

British sources are supplying private funds to transport the children. The American committee has deposited $50,000 required by the United States as insurance against any likelihood that the children would become public charges.

Throughout Canada there will be admiration for this initiative shown by capable people in the United States. It had been hoped months ago in Canada that the initiative would be taken by a national committee in this country—the senior member overseas of the British family of nations.

Canada must at least move into line with the United States in this movement to save the children. There is no surer test of a nation's standard of civilization than the measure of action on an instinctive desire to protect the children.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

TOO MUCH

THE WHEAT IS GROWING fat and heavy on the prairies now. From the train window you can see the stalks bending under the weight of it. Little waves seem to ripple across it as the light wind blows like ripples on a smooth green sea. Now there are faint tinges of yellow, waxing and waning. Each grain is swelling and hardening and sucking up the last fertility, the minute chemicals and richness of this prairie land.

Piled together, these tiny grains will make 400,000,000 bushels, they say, the best of all food for the stomachs of men. Too much wheat, they say. Too much wheat, say the sleek, well-fed men in the Chateau Laurier bedroom at Ottawa. Too much wheat, say the harrassed men in the East Block. Too much, say the frantic men in Parliament. Too much good food here on our rich prairie earth.

The wheat knows nothing of that. It grows and swells and waves in the wind. In the fallow land the fat white horses, three abreast, pull the harrows, making ready the ground for next year's crop. The horses know only that the midday sun is hot, and there is dust in their eyes, but by the brook, among the little poplars, there is shade and rest at noontime.

The lean farmer follows the horses, trudging through the dust, his face black with dirt and sweat, and he only knows that he has ploughed and sowed this ground and watched the little green shoots surge through the crust of spring and grow strong in the sunshine, and soon he will feel the hard yellow grains in his hand. He only knows that he has labored here and produced good food that men need in their stomachs. Too much wheat, the other men say. We must not grow so much wheat, they say.

If we only had a different financial system we could buy all the wheat at a good price, the frantic men say. It is all a matter of credit, of bookkeeping and management.
The farmer doesn't know about that. He only knows that he broke this land with his plough long ago, and watched the blizzards blow across it in the winter, and the grain coming up in the spring and turning golden in the autumn. He only knows that he can make wheat grow, that other men are hungry for it, but he is still poor and people who grow nothing, produce nothing, have become rich.

Too much wheat, the clever men say, the men who have never felt plough handles nor the whip of the blizzard, nor the dust and sweat in their eyes. We must cut down the wheat acreage, they say, as if it were just bookkeeping, as if it were just a chart on a piece of paper. But the farmer knows it is more than that. It is rich land, pregnant with fertility, urgent soil full of goodness, and its crop is solid substance, the ultimate wealth of the world, and to destroy it, to limit it, to waste it, violates laws far deeper than economics, far more important than politics, not to be set down in chart or ledger.

The farmer knows that vaguely, though he cannot say it, as he looks at the heavy grain, growing ripe. Too much wheat, they say, but the farmer knows with an instinct deeper than learning that they are wrong.
Out there somewhere is a piece of land that my father broke 60 years ago. There were Indians here then—Pound Maker and Red Cloud and the other big chiefs, and they used to come to his lonely sod-roofed cabin for a pinch of tobacco. There were buffalo here then, endless herds grazing on the rich land. But my father and other men broke the land with their ploughs and planted it and watched their first crop ripen, and felt the grain in their hands for the first time, and knew it was good.

Acres by acres they broke the land and every year they had a little more grain to trade for the things they needed, and hungry men across the sea ate the grain, paying for it gratefully. Life was hard then, and lonely, —a sod cabin, a few horses and maybe a sweetheart in England who would come out some day. But my father and the others were content because they could see the grain growing, the fields stretching further and further out towards the horizon, the ploughs surging and yielding under the plough, the world growing richer with every new acre.

Life made sense to these men. They were free men as men can only be when they feel their own earth under their feet and see the growth of the seed they have planted. They were happy men because they were producing something the world needed. They were opening up the rich land to the hungry world and only a crazy man would have said then that they could produce too much food when the world had too little.

But today the clever men say there is too much wheat. The acreage must be cut down. The land that our fathers broke and harrowed and sowed must go back to the range, must stop producing food in a world where most people will go to bed tonight with pains of hunger. My father shot buffalo here.
Let the land go back to the buffalo, the clever men say. And still more clever men say that it is all a matter of bookkeeping in the banks.
Your father was wrong, they say, to make the land produce the food that the world needs.

The farmer pauses there in his field, in the dust of his fallow land, and looks across the green rippling sea of grain with the tinge of yellow in it, and he is sick in his heart.
He has grown the grain, he has performed the real miracle, done the real job, but somehow the world cannot consume this food, though it is hungry, though millions will starve. Is it wrong and foolish to make the land yield? Is it right to abandon it?
The farmer is baffled and confused by the cries of the clever men, the shrieks of the crazy men, but by an instinct deeper than their wisdom he knows that this land was made, between the mountains and the NEWS ANALYSIS NEEDED

WHERE THE Canadian radio is woefully weak is in its complete lack of news analysis.
There is nobody in Canada analyzing and interpreting the news as H. V. Kaltenborn, Raymond Gram-Swing and others are interpreting it in the United States, and as Wickham Steed, Vernon Bartlett and J. B. Priestly are interpreting it for the BBC in the Old Country.

Incidentally, as the censorship has more and more clamped down on the straight BBC news from London, so that there is now very little in it except padding about air raids, the quality of the news commentaries has simultaneously improved. One can bet with assurance that whatever Cyril Lakin says is so. His stuff stands the test of events.

The lesson I see is that it pays to let responsible commentators talk straight from the shoulder.
There are many things which have to be kept secret in wartime, unless the enemy is to be given the chance to win victories which he could not otherwise win. But there is a vital need for news
"right from the horse's mouth."

The Canadian government has always seemed to me to be like a foster parent who had adopted an orphan child which turned out to be something of a prodigy. It was scared stiff at the implications of the relationship. So there has been a sort of attempt to keep this miracle worker in short pants as long as possible.

So Canada shrinks back in awe from the turning loose of Canadians to interpret for Canadians what the world news means to

A REAL OLD-TIMER

(From Comox Argus)

Congratulations to Mrs. J. B.

birthday at her home at Nob Hill on Friday, Mrs. Holmes is still quite active physically and mentally, living alone in the house near the beach and taking care of herself. Her eyes are still good and she takes a keen interest in all the news and likes discussing events with friends.
She remembers very clearly the day she first came to Comox between 60 and 70 years ago now.
She came straight out from London, a young bride. The loggers of the day had prepared a real charivari for the young couple and it is still remembered by the old-timers. They brought an old cannon that used to stand on the Dyke and fired it off in front of the store; they set barrels of tar on fire and rolled them down the hill into the harbor. Mrs. Holmes can smile at it all now, knowing that it was all done in a spirit of good humored fun, but she was terrified at the time.

R.C.A.F. USES GERMAN BOOK

From Toronto Star

A book written for the use of German pilots is now serving the Royal Canadian Air Force. Discovered in a New York library by Professor E. A. Holt, professor of psychology at the University of Toronto, who also now teaches aviation psychology, it was translated by another University of Toronto man, Major V. E. Henderson. The book was written by Dr.
Heinz von Diringshofen, the chief medical officer of the German air corps, and published prior to the invasion of Poland. It gives excellent instruction on how a flier should guard his mental and physical health and efficiency while flying at high altitude, and while in the midst of severe bombing activities.

CIVIL SERVANT WANTS REAL HOME

THE HARTNELL CASE

To the Editor:—With reference to the various letters about the Hartnell scandal, it seems pretty evident that people cannot understand or overlook the glaring injustice of the sentence passed on this traitor to the country which has fed and educated him, and to which he should owe every allegiance.

Like many others I should like to enquire who is responsible for this minimum sentence and the reasons that could be given for same. Would that same sentence have been meted out to any half-starved Communist or Socialist who might have been driven to make a far less subversive statement, owing perhaps to lack of food, shelter or employment? This youth, on the contrary, was well fed, educated and able to travel in Germany, where he probably became an ardent admirer of Hitler and decided he would like to see his own country under the Fuehrer's heel.

I once knew a sheriff of very long standing who said: "My boy, there is a vast difference between justice and law." Perhaps the magistrate here understands the law but not justice.

Women's Work Will Be Recognized

TORONTO—Three and a half million Canadian women, members of 30 women's organizations with affiliations in cities, towns and villages in every section of Canada, will be accorded special representation at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

These 3,000,000 women, merchandizing experts say, do 85 per cent of all the buying in Canada. As such, their opinions are not to be taken lightly or their whims easily set aside. Their articulate representatives are comprised of 91 women's editors on daily papers from Halifax to Vancouver, and scores of ladies of the press, feature writers, cookery experts, magazine editors and the like.

This being the day of the woman, librarians in the city of Toronto thought it would be well to focus some attention on the exploits of women famous in history, those famous in today's life being pretty well known through the medium of the press.

Accordingly, they dug into statistics, reference books, encyclopaedias and private opinion and emerged with the following:

FAMOUS FOR THREE THINGS

The three things for which women became famous in history were, in order of precedence, beauty, power, goodness. They have no explanation, they say, why goodness should be last, but there it is.

Citing statistics, they explain that woman has been relatively slow in emerging from obscurity. Of the 25 billion people who have seen the light of day since the beginning of the world, only 5,000 have been important enough to be celebrated in histories, encyclopaedias and "Who's Who." Of these 5,000, only 200 were women. Biographies and histories of most of these will be assembled in a special display.

Among those whose charm and beauty made historians attentive were Helen of Troy, Cleopatra, Mary Queen of Scots and Lady Hamilton. The others, whose qualities were less memorable than beauty, have yet to be selected by the squad of librarians occupied in selecting the books for the display.

Actress Dustman Is Ruled Out

BRADFORD, England (CP)—No more will the neat figure of Norah Blaney, musical comedy star, be found atop her dust cart.

Councillors of Bradford have ruled that she mustn't be allowed to collect garbage anymore to help further the war effort.

And Miss Blaney, who in private life is the wife of a surgeon, Dr. Basil Hughes, is very indignant. She had been doing the work voluntarily because she had watched so much refuse going to waste. She knew she could salvage a lot of things thrown out with tin cans and empty bottles, etc. So she donned a pair of overalls and pulled a "sou-wester" over her curls and climbed on a municipal cart to make her rounds.

Twice a week she had made her rounds doing the work of the dustman whom she "liked" as they all "got on well together."

And as for the housewives, said Norah, "they used to give me a cup of tea and offer me encouragement in my work." She said she had taken "bales of waste paper to the mills, collected scrap metal and sorted bottles."

"Now they have stopped me. Apparently it doesn't matter about the war and getting on with an urgent job. It is a stupid and petty attitude to take up... all right. Now I shall find myself some other useful war work."

Engagements

WOOD-HUDLIN
The engagement is announced of Mildred, youngest daughter of Mrs. M. Hudlin, 866 North Park Street, and the late Joseph Hudlin, to Mr. Philip A. Wood, fourth son of Mrs. C. Wood and the late Harry Wood, Salt Spring Island. The wedding will take place in the fall.

One Exemption Idea
KIMBERLEY, South Africa (CP)—The local school board has asked the government to exempt children of soldiers from school and examination fees and the cost of schoolbooks for the duration of the war.

Sabotage In Air
PRETORIA (CP)—Believing recent jamming of British news broadcasts throughout South Africa was caused by an illegally-operated transmitter, police are combing the country for the offender.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor caught by the Times cameraman as he was formally opening the Red Cross gala at Government House yesterday. With him, left, is Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson, the general convener, and Mrs. Hamber.

Gracie Fields Cheered by 8,700 at Red Cross Fete

Government House Garden Party is Record Success; Triumph of Organization and Co-operation, Says His Honor In Opening Speech

"Whereeee!" This feels like a Rochdale welcome! This is like coming home!"

This was Gracie Fields' ejaculation as, escorted by two stalwart Provincial Police and accompanied by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber, she tried to make her way through the thousands who surged forward with cries of "Good Old Gracie!" as she appeared at the grand Red Cross gala fete at Government House yesterday afternoon.

8,700 PRESENT

The crowd, officially estimated at 8,700, greeted the famous English comedienne with deafening cheers and shaking her blonde curls, she finally emerged into view on the terrace lawn, and was formally welcomed by His Honor in a gracious speech. In expressing her deep appreciation of the wonderful welcome Victoria had accorded her she said, "Now I'll give you a song, one that the boys sang in France, and they're still singing in England" and she sang, without accompaniment, "Wish Me Luck as You Wave Me Good-bye," and as she ended on a high note, remarked with characteristic humor, sotto voce, "That's swank!"

When the crowd still showed no disposition to move, Miss Fields, in broad Lancashire, reminded them "Now, lads, you didn't come here to stare at me. You came here to dig down into your pockets for the Red Cross and patronize those stalls. So I'm not going to keep you from that. And I can't sign autographs. It would knock me dizzy trying to do it, as if I did it for one, I'd have to do it for all."

RED-LETTER EVENT

The presence of Miss Fields was the highlight in a red-letter day in the annals of social or philanthropic affairs in Victoria. Never has such a crowd turned out and never has such a huge undertaking been so splendidly organized. Here was where Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson showed her organizing genius in the role of general convener.

Miss Fields, who was accompanied by her secretary, Miss Margaret Agosti, and her pianist, Mr. Harold Parr-Davies, wore a simple tailored, pleated navy blue frock, a short black caraco coat, and a tiny black and white straw hat with a black veil. Mrs. Hamber wore a lovely formal gown of rose-printed chiffon over a deeper tone of taffeta, the bolero edged with a narrow pleating of the rose, and a wide-brimmed hat of rose ballbunt straw trimmed with a choux of roses in two tones at the front. Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, general convener of the affair, was gowned in heavy pleated chalk-white crepe, with a wide-brimmed hat of net and straw.

FORMAL OPENING

After the formal opening by His Honor, who spoke in appreciative terms on behalf of the Red Cross, the program was accomplished by our patriotic citizens under the able leadership of Mrs. Wilson, the co-operation of the service clubs, the Women's Canadian Club and all those generous citizens who have contributed to the stalls and prizes, and last but by no means least, to the splendid way in which the public, as always, turned out to lend their support." Mrs. Wilson recorded the pleasure it had afforded her to be associated with the Red Cross and with their ever-generous host and hostess.

Brig. Gen. J. G. Austin, chairman of the Victoria Red Cross, then read a letter from Princess Chikhmatoff, enclosing a handsome cheque for $1,750 for the purchase of a fully-equipped ambulance.

SEATTLE GUESTS

Among the out-of-town guests was a party of 37 members of the Seattle and King County Chapter of the American Red Cross, led by Mrs. Otis Floyd Lamson, the chairman, who was a striking figure in her Red Cross uniform of white, with scarlet cuffs and collar and white cap, from which hung a flowing scarlet veil.

A party of American girls who are camping at Orcas Island called on His Honor and Mrs. Hamber and presented a donation of $25 to the cause, explaining that this represented money which they had first thought of spending in fireworks on July 4; instead, they had decided to give it to the Canadian Red Cross. Miss Gracie Fields was with His Honor and Mrs. Hamber when the gift was presented and joined the host and hostess in tendering thanks for this delightful expression of American sympathy with the British cause.

The presentation of colors by His Honor to the Victoria Kinsmen's Club band, who, wearing their smart new blue and scarlet uniforms, gave a program under the leadership of Alfred Prescott, was the first event on the program. The McAlpine twins, Don and Bill, received the colors from His Honor. Mr. E. H. Harris of the Kinsmen's Club, introduced the band.

Then followed an exhibition by the Victoria Girls' Drill Team, directed by Captain Norman Foster. The Highland Lassies' Pipe Band, directed by Pipe Major Lillian Grant, also played stirring music, and the Misses Wynne Shaw, Maud Renwick, Virginia Ryan and Mary Batchelor, who arrived on the lawn in a flower-decorated canoe, gave Hawaiian dances in costume. Len Acres' orchestra also played.

After the formal part of the program the crowds thronged the stalls ranged around the lawns. Mrs. Charles E. Wilson was responsible for the strikingly original decorative schemes, which evoked much admiring comment.

STRIKING STALLS

Home cooking was sold at a stall adorned with a blue and white checked dimity flounce, and a replica of a three-tiered wedding cake at one end and a huge plum pudding at the other, announced the nature of its wares. An unassuming stall of flowers was latticed all over with magnificent spikes of dahlias in peach and mauve tones, beneath a canopy of ivy. A huge white elephant topped the superfluities stall; modernistic, stylized pagodas indicated the gift stall, and magnificent Oriental embroideries and gay Chinese lanterns made a colorful setting for the Chinese stall.

Bags of every kind and shape found ready purchasers at a stall from whose triple arches of apple blossom hung a huge black patent leather bag inscribed "I Bags All," while toothsome candies were sold at a stall decorated with white balloons. Two huge storks carrying babies denoted the baby's wear stall.

MIDWAY POPULAR

The midway did a roaring business. "Knocking the Dictators," chuck-a-luck, crown and anchor, and the dice game, conducted by the Kiwanis Club; "Hit Hitler" and the coin tables conducted by the Gyros; the gold rush and the wheel of chance in charge of the Kinsmen Club; the roulette wheel, crown and anchor, under and over and penny-ante—run by the Knights of the Khorrassan, and the "Bingo" and horse racing conducted by Victoria Elks, B.P.O.E., induced even churchgoers to throw their anti-gambling inhibitions, and money just rolled in.

FORTUNE TELLING

Under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Rickard, a bevy of fortune tellers peeped into the future by devious ways, including Madame Earp, Mrs. Birkett, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Miss Kate Gaudin, Mme. Sylvia, Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. McQueen and "Aquarius" (Ursula Hudson). Mrs. W. Finnore created an amusing diversion as "Old Kate of Piccadilly" with her basket. Miss Alice Pooley with her tiny dog, and Mrs. P. Birley and her canine collector for the Red Cross, also attracted much attention.

Balloons were sold from a colorful Mexican cart, driven by Elizabeth and Frederick Hart in Mexican costume, and little Murray McIntosh, garbed as a monkey, was an amusing peanut vender. The sandwich man who enticed customers to the Fortune Hall was Mr. Eric James.

SOS FROM TEA TENTS

Despite the painstaking arrangements made by the Women's Canadian Club to cater for the tea, the crowd was so much larger than the anticipated 3,000 that supplies ran short and an SOS call was sent in to town for additional cakes and biscuits to feed the multitude. Mrs. H. L. Campbell and Mrs. T. H. Johns were conveners for the club and were assisted by 72 pourers, 100 serving inside the two marquees and 70 girls outside. In addition to a number of Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, who gave yeoman service.

Golf games were in charge of Messrs. Phil Taylor, Fred McGregor, E. D. Todd and C. S. Henley, with Mrs. J. C. Butterfield, Mrs. Chas. Pearce and Miss Elizabeth Martin. Mrs. H. S. Beckton and Mrs. H. F. Crowe had charge of the tickets and the table on which were displayed the prizes, all collected by Mrs. C. F. Armstrong, for the grand drawing, at which Mrs. Hamber, Mrs. Andrew McGavin and Mrs. C. E. Wilson later officiated.

TOWN CRIER

Mr. Stewart Clark acted as Town Crier, making announcements through the loud speaker, such announcements varying from appeals to the crowd to leave space for the speakers at the opening ceremony, to appeals for children who had lost their parents, or vice versa. CFCT kindly installed equipment and

Rev. Norman Crees and Mrs. Crees and their two children, who have been spending the month of July at the First United Church Camp at Gambier Island, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. D. A. McIntosh and Mrs. E. C. Williams, both of North Vancouver, are visiting here as the guests of Mrs. H. V. Mills, Moss Street.

Mrs. Wm. Dealey, 228 Obed Avenue, has returned from Vancouver accompanied by Mrs. M. Matthews of Lethbridge, Alberta. Mrs. Matthews will visit with Mrs. Dealey until the end of October.

A delightful surprise shower was held Monday evening in honor of Mrs. O. Newberry, nee Frances Carlson. The gifts were concealed in a gaily-decorated container. A dainty buffet supper was served. The invited guests were: Mrs. J. C. Corkle, Mrs. T. Panthorpe, Mrs. R. Panthorpe Jr., Mrs. R. Panthorpe Sr., Mrs. W. Panthorpe, Mrs. D. Panthorpe, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Carlson, Misses Audrey Panthorpe, B. Waldron, Norma Corkle, Myrtle Corkle and M. Panthorpe.

Mrs. J. Mermod and Mrs. H. R. McDonald were joint hostesses recently at a miscellaneous shower at the home of the latter, 3352 Oak Street, in honor of Miss Grace Miller, who is to be married shortly. On her arrival little Barbara Westman presented a pretty corsage of pink carnations and mauve sweet peas to the bride-to-be and also her mother was presented with corsage of red and white carnations by Peggy McDonald. The gifts were concealed in an attractive box decorated in pastel shades of mauve, yellow and green. Contests and games were played, the winners being Mrs. D. Kirkham and Miss Hope Woods. At the close of an enjoyable evening dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Mesdames W. Miller, H. Hurst, H. Harrison, P. Coleman, G. Austin, Westman, Merriam, D. Caldwell, G. Markland, D. Wood, D. Kirkham, L. Pollard, A. Stevens, J. Murrant, Maule, F. Pearson, Frayne, Bevan, B. Horret, J. Seath, J. Humphries, J. Lord, J. Rogers, J. Wetherall, J. Mermod, H. McDonald, and the Misses G. Miller, E. Green, E. Frayne, D. Carey, L. Ormond, H. Woods, Evelyn Mermod, Marion Mermod, J. McDonald, B. Westman and Peggy McDonald.

Kept busy at the gates all afternoon were Messrs. C. H. Rutherford, J. G. Hazlewood, Stan Williams, Capt. W. N. Moorhouse, T. A. Johnston, P. Carrier, Alan Butchart, E. B. Wilson, E. R. Cawley, Hamilton, Geo. S. Scott and McAlpine, while Mrs. H. Frayne assisted with the publicity and also gave valuable assistance to the treasurer yesterday.

At the Victoria Golf Club today Mrs. J. D. Hunter was hostess at a luncheon party in honor of her guest, Miss Joan Carmichael of Chilliwack.

Miss Velma Simpson, R.N., and Miss E. Stanley-Smith, who have spent a vacation motoring and visiting friends in California, have returned to their home at Langford Lake.

Mrs. John Toogood, the former Alleen Cullum of Victoria, who has gone to New Westminster to make her home, was the guest of honor when Mrs. George Cran entertained at tea Tuesday at the Yacht Club, Vancouver. Lieut. Toogood is a nephew of Mrs. Cran.

Mrs. Allon Peebles, Tudor Avenue, Ten Mile Point, entertained yesterday morning with a small informal coffee party in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. Cass-Beggs, Toronto, late of Oxford, England, who gave a program for the Summer School students at the Victoria High School this morning. Mrs. Peebles presided at the coffee table, which was set on the sun porch.

Miss Marjorie Brown, who is to be married shortly, was the guest of honor when Mrs. Margaret Miller and her sister, Miss Mildred Jones entertained at a luncheon party yesterday at the Beach Hotel, Oak Bay, the other guests including Mesdames Kermeth Graham, Andrew Pitkethly, William Mearns, George McCandless, Thomas Stevenson, Alan Mayhew and Misses Hope Denbigh, Roma Dorman, Helen Eve, Eileen Pendray, Constance Hobbs and Valerie Kearnson.

Last evening at her home on Carnes Street, Miss Jean Taylor was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Beverley Pearce, whose wedding will be held shortly. The gifts were concealed in a chest adorned with pink and white crepe paper, and pink and white formed the color scheme on the supper table. The guests included Miss Beverley Pearce, Mrs. S. S. Pearce, Mrs. A. Ockwell, Mrs. J. B. Hodgins, Mrs. R. W. Marsh and Mrs. P. Nielson, and the Misses Judy and Pat Pearce, Lorna Farrell, Muriel Farrell, Jean and Louise Marsh, Gladys Nielson, Muriel Winterbottom, Sheila McAllister and Jean Jenvey.

Miss Eunice Allen, 1618 Fell Street, whose marriage to Mr. Frank S. Bonnell will take place on Saturday, August 3, in Vancouver, has been the guest of honor at several attractive functions given recently by her friends. Members of the Volunteer Club presented the bride-elect with a handsome silver teapot and hot water jug at the home of Mrs. D. K. Kennedy, and the Friday Evening Bridge Club of which Miss Allen is a member, entertained at an attractive tea at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel at which she was presented with an electric toaster. Other hostesses who entertained at showers were: Miss Helen and Jean Elliott, Mrs. Harry B. Dawson, Mrs. M. Stewart, and Mrs. D. W. Morry, Miss Jean Rutledge, and Mrs. W. Blake.

Miss Jean Mayhew entertained at a crystal shower at her home, "Kahn-a-Way," Beach Drive, this afternoon in compliment to Miss Doreen Pheasant, an August bride-to-be. The rooms were gay with summer flowers, including chrysanthemums and gladioli. Mrs. John Pheasant and Mrs. Alfred Carmichael presided at the tea table, which was centred with a dainty shower container in the form of a parasol in pastel pink, green and white, over a pretty box in which was concealed the set of handsome crystal goblets and desserts. Assisting the hostess in serving were the Misses Elizabeth Martin, Rene Watson, Valentine Harlock, Esme Ketchen, Rosanna Gillespie, Ruth Horton, Evelyn Harrison (Atlanta, Ga.), Gwen Harper, Mary Inskter (Toronto), Dora Jones, Betty McMurray, Vera Marsh, Cynthia Musgrave, Pamela Connan, Ann Ridewood, Buntie Sloan, Margaret Sutcliffe, Mary Stephens, Betty Sheppard, Jacqueline Tweed, Gwen Wright, Frisilla Wright, Patsy Watson, Mary Worsley and Helen Woodcroft.

Liner Lands 1,400.

Colorful Groups Reaching Canada

By JACK TRACY
AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—An ocean liner, landing 1,400 passengers here today, brought with it the most varied passenger list of any of the nine ships which have carried British travelers and European refugees to Canadian shores within the last month.

A Tunisian prince, a French artillery officer on a secret mission, an English poet, a British Labor peer and a titled lord and gentlewoman, aged six and 15, respectively, were among the passengers. There were also 600 British children going to homes in the United States and Canada.

All of the passengers came out here under private arrangements, as distinguished from the British government's evacuation scheme. A number of the children traveled in school groups.

TO LIVE IN MONTREAL
Tall Prince Abdullah Ben Ayad of Tunis, who lost a leg fighting for France at the Dardanelles in the first Great War, arrived with Princess Ben Ayad to take up residence on Montreal Island for the duration of the war.

The prince, a supporter of General Charles de Gaulle, who is recognized by Great Britain as leader of all free Frenchmen, is considering a request to use his influence to swing the people of North Africa to De Gaulle's side.

ALFRED NOYES ARRIVES
Like most Englishmen who come to this country, Alfred Noyes, the English poet, is confident Hitler's projected blitzkrieg will not make a dent in Britain's iron defence. The poet brought out his wife and three children, Hugo, 12; Veronica, 10; and Margaret, 8.

He will lecture in Canada under the auspices of the National Council of Education, and then go to the United States on a lecture tour. The children will go to school in Canada.

Noyes' home is at the extreme south of the Isle of Wight, where all raid alarms occur two or three times a day. Its garden adjoins a beach.

"The thing that made us decide to move the children," he said, "was the statement of the chief constable, who said the enemy had been machine-gunning children on the beaches."

There was practically no poetry being written on this war. "It is different from the last war," Noyes said. "People are not in the mood; it is too grim a business."

SEEING INTERNEES
Lord Marley, British Labor peer and authority on refugees, came to Canada to look into the case of certain internees. He was sent on this assignment by the British-parliamentary refugee committee, of which he is vice-chairman.

He said some of these enemy aliens who were transported to camps in Canada from Britain might be useful in Britain's war effort. Some of them are actually anti-Nazi.

There was a possibility that some might be returned to Britain, where their skill can be employed in the prosecution of the war. Lord Marley will check up on them and also look into conditions in the camps.

He said many "fifth columnists" in Britain were "potential

Loretta Young, who at 27 is a veteran of 15 years in pictures, and Thomas H. Lewis, 38, radio advertising executive, who were married yesterday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Westwood. It was the actress' second marriage, Lewis' first. Her first, and elopement with actor Grant Withers when she was 16, was annulled.

Turning to the refugee question, Lord Marley said he had raised the point in the House of Lords that "as long as the children of the rich come out, there is no earthly reason why parts of the ships should not be devoted to the poor, provided their parents sign papers saying they will not hold the government responsible for them."

PLAN STILLBORN
Another point which had been raised in the House of Lords was that the government "may have plans to bring out the poor, but it let criticism arise before the plan got working."

One of the most interesting figures aboard ship was a monied French artillery officer. He wore 10 medal ribbons on his uniform breast, including those of the Croix de Guerre and the Legion of Honor.

He declined to discuss his purpose in Canada, although it was believed he was a supporter of Gen. de Gaulle. Nor would he give his name for fear of German reprisals against his family.

The young titled pair are Lady A. P. Herbert, listed as 15 years old, and Lord Brooke, 6. They will stay with Arthur Wendell of Wendellshore Summit, N.J.

NANAIMO READY FOR REGISTRATION

DUNCAN (CP)—Everybody in Nanaimo federal constituency is swinging in behind W. M. Dwyer, registrar, to make a swift success in the national registration, August 19, 20 and 21.

Many are volunteering to act as assistant deputy registrars and there is a good response from the owners of community halls, church halls, school boards, businesses, etc., for accommodation for registration booths, said Mr. Dwyer today.

As an example of the co-operation being extended, Mr. Dwyer told of a visit he made to a lumber company this week. As he stepped out of his car, the lumber company manager was standing on the doorway steps.

"The answer is 'Yes,'" said the company manager before Mr. Dwyer made a request for any assistance. But, explained the registrar, the manager recognized him and knew there was going to be a request for assistance in the national registration.

"That's the spirit in which I am being met," said Mr. Dwyer.

The registrar has formed volunteer committees at central points throughout the electoral district. The committees are headed by municipal officials or other prominent citizens. The function of the committees is to provide assistant deputy registrars, secure the voluntary use of premises and other registration details.

Leading men among the Chinese, Japanese, Hindu and native Indian people are being contacted with the request that they explain to their people the necessity of registering, and also, where necessary, furnish interpreters. The Indian agents are giving valuable assistance in this connection, said Mr. Dwyer.

Arthur J. Jordan Dies in Nanaimo

NANAIMO (CP)—Funeral services will be held here Friday for Arthur James Jordan, 58-year-old Nanaimo resident who died here last night.

Born in Whitehaven, England, he had lived here for 32 years, broken only by a four-year stay in New Zealand. He was secretary of the United Mine Workers of America in 1912, and was prominent in hospital work here.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Arthur of Ladysmith, B.C., and Donald Wilbert of Nanaimo, and a daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Whisker, who lives in Ladysmith.

For Bigger Game

MELBOURNE (CP)—Supporters trooped up to the gate of a big football field and found the announcement: "Today's Match, Warrigal Wanderers vs. Germany." Most of the team had enlisted; the game was called off.

Although temperatures in central Australia have gone as low as 14 degrees above zero, natives of this region wear no clothing.

Flier Killed On Lulu Island

VANCOUVER (CP)—Charles Doyle, veteran Canadian flier, was dead and Bruno Wovk, 21, was in a critical condition in a hospital today as the result of an airplane crash yesterday in the yard of their Lulu Island home. Unaware he was a passenger, Wovk's 26-year-old sister Edna was the first to reach the scene of the crash. With two friends and Doyle's teen-aged sons, Douglas and Charles, she had watched the machine stunting overhead.

A trained nurse, she gave her brother emergency treatment. He was still wearing a plaster cast as the result of fractures of the spine and hip he suffered March 10 when a plane in which he was flying with James M. Jacobsen crashed in the same vicinity.

Doyle, 46, married and with six children, was working as a carpenter at the Wovk home. He recently completed an aeronautics course at St. Hubert, Que. He flew in the first Great War and more recently was attached to the Chinese air force as an instructor.

The plane, a cabin monoplane seating two persons, had been rented at the Vancouver civic airport.

Wovk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wovk, are at present in Winnipeg.

GERMAN PRISONER RELEASED IN U.S.

BANGOR, Me. (AP)—First German prisoner of war to escape to the United States while en route to internment in Canada has been saved by international law from being handed back to British authorities.

Federal officials held 25-year-old Kurt Reich, a captured submarine machinist's mate, for several hours in the Bangor jail yesterday before releasing him unconditionally. Immigration authorities examined the possibility of deportation proceedings against him, but whether they still were considering any action was a secret they would not divulge.

After he leaped aboard from a British ship in the St. Lawrence River, July 15, and swam to safety, a United States border patrol seized him at the Maine border.

Arthur Arthur Teale of Boston had him freed, after he had been held for safekeeping under an international law providing that a neutral power receiving escaped prisoners of war shall allow them liberty.

In Ottawa, the Internment operations branch said no German prisoner had escaped Canadian authorities, indicating they

KISS YOUR TIRED FEELING GOODBYE!

Peppes Many Suffer Low Blood Count—And Don't Know It.

The baffling thing about low blood count is that you can weigh about as much as you ever did—even look healthy and strong, yet you can feel as if you had lead in your legs, dopey, tired and peevish.

Low blood count means you haven't got enough red blood corpuscles. It is their vital job to carry life-giving oxygen from your lungs throughout your body. And just as it takes oxygen to explode gasoline in your car and make the power to turn the wheels, so you must have plenty of oxygen to explode the energy in your body and give you going power.

Get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today. They are world-famous for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with your blood count up, you'll feel like bounding up the stairs as if you were floating on air. Ask your druggist for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today.

COWICHAN LAKE FOR OUTDOORS HOLIDAY

Follow the Island Highway over the Malahat to the little city of Duncan, and just beyond. There is a small sign pointing to a side road leading back into the hills. It is a good road, well surfaced and wide, and it leads to splendid fishing and outdoor summer fun. This is the road to Cowichan Lake, cradled deep in the hills, where the sun shines, where the big fish bite and where days are lazy-hours of relaxation for the holiday seeker.

Winding up into the hills, the long road leads first to the Cowichan River, where it leaves the lake on its way to the sea. Swiftly it flows, tumbling in foaming rapids, twisting through the trees, swirling in the shadow of deep shining pools. Where the road touches the river shore a small town has grown. Many summer homes, stores, a garage and an up-to-date, modern hotel.

RIVERSIDE INN

Riverside Inn is the mecca of all fishermen. Of white stucco, in rambling country design, its green lawns extend to the river's edge. Behind the hotel rise the hills. Across the river are more hills. Inside the inn is a wide, comfortable lounge, with deep easy chairs and couches. Just the place to rest after a day's fishing or a hike into the hills. The dining-room is cool and the food of that delicious home-cooked variety that vacationists like. There are boats for hire and a swimming pool just below the lawns. This season, the Riverside is under new management. Mr. M. Bertl and family, formerly of Drumheller, Alberta, have taken over. A number of improvements have been made, mainly in the refreshment parlor and in the sleeping rooms.

CEDAR CABINS

Cowichan Lake also boasts a modern, up-to-date auto camp—Cedar Cabin Camp. Situated on the lake road in a lovely shady cedar grove, this camp has a number of well-built cabins and cottages. Every one has its own bit of ground, none are crowded. There is a cool comfort to this camp that attracts all visitors. Many return season after season, they are so well pleased. The water is warm for swimming. Fishing is good right at the camp as well as further up the lake. This season many improvements have been made and new cabins built to serve an ever-increasing demand.

Cowichan Lake is an ideal spot for a summer vacation. Long, lazy days to spend in the sun, fishing, swimming, hiking, rowing—all within a few hours' journey of Victoria by train, bus or motor car.

Nanaimo Centre of Island's Playground

Nanaimo, the second oldest city on Vancouver Island, is really in the centre of the island's many tourist attractions. Visitors making their headquarters for touring the island—situated right on the shore of land-locked Nanaimo harbor and facing on the main street of the city, this hotel is considered to be one of the finest on the island. It is a particular hotel for particular people, patronized by tourists and travelers from all over the world. The service is second to none. The rooms are clean and pleasant. Modern in every way. A genial manager and efficient staff attend one's needs and courteously answer the many questions about the surrounding countryside.

Historically, there is much of interest in Nanaimo. The waters of the harbor have been ruffled by many strange craft in years gone by. Indian canoes, Spanish galleons, Hudson's Bay ships here left on indelible mark. At the entrance to the harbor there are three small islands, Gabriola, Protection and Newcastle all with historical background, full flavored with the years. Newcastle Island with its sandy beaches, warm sea bathing, beautiful park and other up-to-date attractions is now a modern summer playground.

In Nanaimo there is an old bastion, built by the Hudson's Bay Company in 1853, now used as an historical museum of early days. There are Indian carvings at Chase River nearby, so old they can be traced to no known tribe. The biological station at Departure Bay is another place of interest to visitors. Here the varied sea life of British Columbia's shores can be studied.

Added to all its other attractions, Nanaimo offers the spice

First Child Group Coming Under Government Plan

By GLADYS ARNOLD
(By Cable From London)

Singing "There'll Always Be An England," some 100 children are today en route to Canada in an 8,000-ton passenger boat. They form the first group sent under the British government's overseas evacuation scheme, though many already have crossed under private auspices. They are all from grant-aided schools.

This group, aged five to 15, includes four families of four children. Some 40 per cent of the party, who do not know where they are going, call themselves "the prize packages." The other 60 per cent are going to relatives in Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Perth, Ont., Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Calgary, Vancouver, Victoria—and pretty Thelma Burton, 11, is going to her "auntie," Mrs. Bieley, in Melville, Sask., where she expects to learn to skate—and "to pick fruit in the orchard."

Miss Edith Gowans, registered nurse and experienced in group work with children, is in charge. There were five assistants, including two registered nurses, and also a doctor.

Books, games and toys, special hospital facilities, extra clothing and identity discs worn around the neck. All the children passed a second, final medical examination except one small boy who developed ringworm. He was left behind in tears.

Before the boat sailed, Miss Gowans said: "We are arranging a program of lectures and concerts. The children will be told all about the parts of Canada to which they are going. We'll have no trouble finding enough talent among them to produce their own entertainment."

B.C. TRAVEL TRADE WELL MAINTAINED

Notwithstanding difficulties of present conditions British Columbia's tourist trade is being well maintained and this season will be as good if not better than last year.

Major Gordon Smith, commissioner of the B.C. Travel Bureau, told the Rotary Club in a luncheon address this afternoon. There was a marked improvement in travel from other Canadian provinces. Major Smith said, this being due to the exchange market, opening of the Big Bend Highway and the bureau's campaign to promote inter-provincial travel.

Prospects for the future were excellent. The bureau's advertising had widened the tourist market as indicated by the increase in cars from distant states. In a general review of his department's work Major Smith dealt with the value of tourist traffic and its bearing upon the economic welfare of the province.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 5 a.m. today—Pressure remains low near Queen Charlotte Islands and relatively high off the coast of Oregon. The weather has been cool throughout British Columbia with light to moderate showers in many districts, some rain is also reported in Manitoba, but the weather has been fair and warm in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

The bureau also carried out energetic field work. Its car was kept on the road equipped with projection apparatus and motion pictures. Its field representative engaged energetically to show films, distribute literature and information, maintain contacts with co-operating organizations and interests, and report prospects, in fact, to act generally as a traveling salesman for British Columbia's tourist business which was steadily expanding and now was responsible for circulation of upwards of $30,000,000 dollars a year.

Concert Draws Crowds to Park

The well-blended voices of the Ariel Singers, under the leadership of Frank Tupman, and artistic orchestral selections presented under the direction of Al Prescott provided entertainment of considerable merit for a crowd estimated at 2,500 which thronged Beacon Hill Park last night for the program sponsored by the B.C. Electric Railway Company.

Particularly well received was the choral number "Deep in My Heart," by Friml, easily the most popular of the selections contributed by the Ariel Singers.

Rain curtailed the orchestral program causing cancellation of the featured Wagnerian number, but those pieces which were played were given a good reception.

A similar program will be presented next Wednesday evening under the same auspices.

Second Major Derby Sunday

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

NO GOLFER, not even Craig Wood, lipped the cup of fame more often than Joe Turnesa.

The greatest of the many Turnesas has been the champion runner-up.

Turnesa has finished second in every major tournament for which he is eligible in the United States and Canada, but suffered his biggest heartbreak when the immortal Bobby Jones staged one of his typical finishes in the U.S. open at Columbus Scioto in 1926. With only nine holes to play, Turnesa led the field by six strokes.

But on the long 12th, just as Turnesa was at the top of his swing on a brassie shot, a gallery marshal, too anxious to give him a chance to play, shouted "Fore!"

Turnesa topped the ball badly. The club so upset him that he took a 6...41 on the last nine. He had a 10-foot putt to tie, but the ball rimmed the cup, as it had on five other putts of similar length on that last, long nine.

Walter Hagen grabbed his fifth P.G.A. championship—his fourth in a row—when Turnesa blew a 10-foot putt in Dallas, Texas, in 1927.

Joe Turnesa has no regrets. Golf has been good to the seven brothers... enabled the older six to make a college-bred United States amateur champion of the baby, Willie.

That is one of the finest human interest stories in the history of the royal and ancient game... the professional brothers who came up the hard way consecrating themselves to the duty of seeing that the youngest got what they missed.

Joe Turnesa says a golfer has attained the pinnacle of tournament wisdom only when he reaches a point where he can perceive that he knows nothing definite about anything. He asserts that the only certainty in golf is the impossibility of reaching an age where theorizing will cease. He even tried putting one-handed for a year.

Turnesa's tip is to hit the ball without undue fuss.

Nothing gives a golfer a worse case of jitters than to stand wagging until he becomes hypnotized by the ball.

Since the player can't determine the type of lie he's likely to get, Turnesa slows up long enough to take a close look at the position of the ball on fairways.

On a tee, there's nothing he can do, after looking at the ball for 30 seconds, that he couldn't have done at the very start, so why wait? If it's going to be a poor shot, tension, created by delay, won't help.

So Joe Turnesa belts it and forgets it.

Shawnigan Lake Regatta Saturday

At the J.B.A.A. regatta at Shawnigan Lake Saturday spectators will be treated to closely matched sculling races and a number of novelty turns.

Seven events make up the program. Three of these will be for the highly-trained crews of the J.B.A.A., and the other four will be open to anyone who wishes to take part. Post entries will be accepted for the novelty events. They will include canoe races, log rolling, canoe tilting and aquaplaning.

The sculling events and the crews follow: Doubles—Arnie Mann and Max Winkler vs. Dave Mowat and Bob Mair.

Novice fours—No. 1 crew, R. White, stroke; B. McLaughlin, 3; D. Clarke, 2; N. Hill, bow; No. 2 crew, A. Edmonds, stroke; G. Redline, 3; E. Simmons, 2; D. Hawkins, bow.

Novice fours vs. junior fours—Novice crew, B. McDonald, stroke; N. Edmonds 3; Len Bland, 2; J. Guernsey, bow; Alan McLaughlin, cox; Junior crew, D. Mowat, stroke; B. Mair, 3; A. Bland, 2; L. Beasley, bow; Bill Walker, cox.

TORONTO (CP)—Best three of five series for the Mann Cup, emblematic of the Canadian lacrosse championship, will be played at Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto, beginning October 4 or 7. It was announced last night at a meeting of Ontario Lacrosse Association. The association also reinstated Bill Anthony of Brampton, Excelsior, suspended indefinitely a week ago after striking Gordie Gair of Mimico Mountaineers in a game at Mimico.

Big Softball Battle Tonight

The second game of the Lower Island senior softball playoffs will be played this evening at Athletic Park between Victoria Longshoremen and Cameron Lumber Nines.

In the play-off opener Tuesday night, the elevadores came through with a 5 to 2 victory, but the millhands are determined to make things all even tonight.

Longshoremen think otherwise and will use right-hander Ray Byers on the mound to get them their second straight triumph in this best-of-five championship fight. This lad is good and should make things plenty tough for the opposition. Manager Jack Pascoe of Camerons has not released the name of the flinger he will start on the hill, but it is expected that he will utilize "Rosy" McLellan, a former member of the Longshoremen club.

The game, which will start at 8, is expected to draw out a big crowd.

Prize list follows: First, boat; second, four-piece silver tea service; third, electric mixer; fourth, Rogers' silver flatware set; fifth, large mantle clock; sixth, automatic two-piece electric toaster; seventh, oval roaster; eighth, oval vegetable dish; ninth, silver casserole. One of the most desired prizes on the list is the consolation award. This is a portable radio, which every entrant will have an opportunity of winning.

The new ruling brought in this season barring derbys from fishing on a Saturday prior to a competition will be in effect this week-end, association members are advised. Those who fish Saturday will be disqualified from the Sunday meet.

A GOOD MOVE

It was announced today by president Ray Ritchie that in future if top-weighting fish are registered at Goldstream end on derby days the persons who catch them and the fish will be speeded to Brentwood in a fast boat for the prize presentation at the Anchorage, which takes place shortly after the closing gun at 6.

The prospect is that bigger prize-winning fish will be the order this week-end, if the several large fish caught during the last week are any indication. It is possible there is a "carbon copy" of Fred Duncan's 43½ pound specimen lurking around those waters, or duplicates of Mark Griffiths' 33½-pounder. Both of these were caught last week-end, besides a good number of bronze-butt winners.

The derby will open at the early hour of 6 in the morning. It is expected that practically the whole of the Brentwood and Goldstream sport-fishing fleets will be pressed into use.

TORONTO HOCKEY PLAYERS TO CAMP

TORONTO (CP)—General Manager Conny Smythe of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League said yesterday that all Leaf players will have completed military training before the season opens this fall. "Arrangements will be made within a week to have the players in camp," he said.

Smythe was commenting on a report from Ottawa last night which said that service in the non-permanent active militia should not interfere unduly with professional hockey players performing with Canadian and United States teams this year.

Softball Finals

Times Upset V.M.D.

Rolly-polly Rom Knott occupied an honored position around the Times building today. Last night at Central Park Knott took the mound, for the second successive night, to hurl shutout ball for five innings, as the evening newspaper crew turned back the Victoria Machinery Depot 11 to 5 in the deciding game of the C division softball playoffs.

Tuesday evening Knott took on the pitching duties for the first time this season, and stood the machinery depot lads on their ears as his teammates won 7 to 1. It was the replay of a protested game and tied the series at one win apiece.

Last night the Times opened the game with Bacon on the mound. After allowing five runs in four innings he was chased to the showers and Knott returned to the hill. The veteran's arm still had plenty of zip left and the V.M.D. failed to get a run across in the following five innings and were only able to scratch two or three hits. The Times, in the meantime, breezed home three runs in the fifth to take a 7 to 5 margin and added two more in the sixth and another pair in the eighth.

It was bitter defeat for the

V.M.D. as they had won two straight games, to open the playoffs, and had made plans for the inter-sectional playoffs when the Times won the protest to extend the series.

The Times and Chinese Recreation Club, D division champions, will meet at Victoria West Park tomorrow night.

Score by innings:
V.M.D. 2 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 5

Varsity Youth Golf Medalist

TACOMA (AP)—Dick Hansen, 19-year-old University of Oregon freshman, deftly stroked out a one-under-par 70 over the difficult Fircrest course yesterday to win medalist honors in the 18-hole qualifying round of the Washington State amateur golf tournament.

The Marshfield, Ore., youngster took a one-over-par 37 on the first nine, then came back with a sparkling 33, two under, on the second, despite a five on the 18th. He outscored a field of 88 amateurs.

Albert (Scotty) Campbell of Seattle, defending state amateur champion and former Walker Cup team member, found the going tough and scored a 75.

North Shore opened the scoring in the first half when McManus drove a hard shot from close in after capturing a loose ball which Spencer had lost after outsmarting the Scots defence.

Spencer scored the second goal shortly after and netted the third when play was resumed after the rest period.

Morley scored the Saint's first goal on a penalty given against Trevor Harvey for tripping in the area and, in the dying minutes of the game scored their second and final goal after grabbing a pass from Tommy Milshead.

North Shore nosed out Victoria United in the championship race by the narrow margin of two points after the two teams had run neck and neck during the latter part of the season.

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher, manager of Brooklyn Dodgers, and Walter Brown, New York Giants' relief hurler, were fined $50 each yesterday by president Ford Frick of the National League for using "profane language" in a dispute over a play during the Dodgers-Pittsburgh game Tuesday night, and Brown from the Cincinnati-Giants encounter in the afternoon after disputing an umpire's decision.

Cleveland-Detroit Still Locked in Lead Struggle

TENNIS ENTRIES CLOSE SATURDAY

Entries for the annual city lawn tennis championships will close Saturday night and it is hoped to open play on the Victoria Club courts Sunday.

Competitors will be allowed to play the courts between now and Sunday.

Ross Hocking and Paula Merix are the present holders of the singles crowns.

This is the most important local tournament of the season. All players defeated in the first two rounds are placed into flights, which guarantees every competitor at least two matches.

Injury Strikes Down More Cubs

CHICAGO (AP)—The injury-ridden Chicago Cubs, taking an idea from Congress, may enlist their own conscription plan soon. It may require a draft of one of their farm clubs en masse if the present jinx continues.

Two more Cubs were relegated to the sidelines yesterday, bringing the current casualty list to five and the season's total to 13.

Even manager Gabby Hartnett hasn't escaped. He was hit on the head yesterday by a bat as Mel Mazzera of the Phillies swung all around on a lousy cut. Hartnett left the game but was able to direct the team from the bench.

Little Augie Galan, however, had to be carried from the field with a fractured left knee cap and a severe injury to his right kneecap.

Also on the sidelines now are first baseman Glen Russell, recovering from an appendectomy; right baseman Phil Cavarretta, who suffered a broken ankle for the second time in two seasons, and shortstop Bobby Mattick, who last week wrenched his ankle.

Spencers Score Another Victory

Spencer's cricket club continued its winning march in the Wednesday League yesterday at Beacon Hill Park with an easy 112 to 65 triumph over Five C's.

Five C's, who used three of Garrison's players, were dismissed in an hour with George Gardner and Tupman heading the troop of opposing bowlers. Gardner took four of the C's wickets for 18 runs and Tupman bowled two for five runs.

First batsman for Spencer's was bowled in Hurn's first over and the second wicket fell with the scoreboard reading 27. The C's total was passed, however, before any more batsmen were sent to the sidelines.

Only seven of Spencer's players took a turn at the bat. Ron Nixon headed the list with 40. Frank Tyrell retired after making 30 runs. Brother Norm batted 21. Hurn was top batter for C's with 21 runs and Buck was next with 18.

Come From Behind to Win Duels

Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers still are deadlocked for the American League lead today, proving that miracles do happen.

The Indians squeezed past the Boston Red Sox 12 to 11. The Tribe was trailing 7 to 0 when it came to bat in the fourth and even after Ken Keltner hit a homer with the bases loaded Cleveland continued to lag behind until the eighth inning.

Finally Rookie Russ Peters delivered a pinch single with the sacks filled to score the Indians' tying and winning runs.

Detroit had to come from behind four times to beat New York Yankees 7 to 6 in 11 innings.

Nothing could have been wackier than the double-header St. Louis Cardinals swept from Boston Bees, 3 to 1 and 17 to 8. The first game went 11 innings with Clyde Shoun and Dick Erickson wrapped in a pitching duel. Then Boston blew up and let in two runs. The Cards collected 22 hits in the betting practice that passed for the second game. Johnny Mize hit a homer in each contest to make his total 30 for the year.

New York Giants beat Cincinnati Reds in a night game that attracted 30,334 fans to the Polo Grounds. Bucky Walters was on the threshold of his 16th victory when Burgess Whitehead and Hank Danning each hit homers with a man on base in the ninth inning to beat him 5 to 4.

Chicago Cubs were whipped 7 to 3 by the Phillies and Philadelphia Athletics edged out Chicago White Sox 4 to 3 in a night game.

St. Louis dropped a 13 to 5 decision to the Washington Senators.

COAST LEAGUE
The Hollywood Stars served notice today they plan to be at the pastry counter when the $12,500 post-season playoff pie is cut.

The Stars sneaked into a fourth-place tie with Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League by drubbing the Solons last night, 5 to 2.

With the game deadlocked at 2 to 2 in the ninth inning, catcher Bill Brenzel ripped out a home run with two on, permitting the Stars to celebrate their eighth success in nine starts.

The Los Angeles bombardiers finally got the range of the Seattl fence in the ninth inning of a scheduled seven-inning contest last night and won 2 to 1 after dropping the first game of the doubleheader by the same score.

It was second baseman Lou Stringer who lofted one over the left field fence, at the expense of pitcher Ira Scribner. The win was the Angels' first in three games with the league-leading champs.

Les Webber hurled Seattle to victory in the first contest. The clinching score came in the ninth on rightfielder Eno Vanni's single and infielder George Archie's double.

Seventh-place San Francisco planted Portland a little deeper in the cellar with a double win, 11 to 7 and 5 to 1. The first game was a repetition of Tuesday's error-fest. Portland booted five and the Seals four. In the nightcap Al Epperly held the Beavers to seven hits.

The crippled Acorns of Oakland were unable to convert nine hits off Dick Newsome into anything resembling a run, and lost 1 to 0 to the San Diego Padres.

Friday night the clubs swapped partners for the rest of the week. Los Angeles will play at Portland, San Francisco at Seattle, Sacramento at Oakland and San Diego at Hollywood.

With the Forces Galipoli Veteran In Army Again

Private V. G. Love, a veteran of the last war in the Australian Field Artillery, is now back with the army in the uniform of the Canadian Scottish Regiment. Private Love, who has lived on this island for the last 14 years, saw the whole of the last war, first at the landing at Gallipoli, later in France and Belgium, and finally in the occupation of Germany.

He joined up in Comox last September, and came to Victoria in December. "I'm glad to be back in—this work is a sort of trade with me," he remarked.

Service in Iceland
Clarence B. Burden of Fredericton, N.B., has been appointed supervisor of Canadian Legion War Services activities in Iceland, it was announced by Lieut.-Col. D. E. MacIntyre, D.S.O., M.C., general manager.

Plans of the Legion are to establish in that far-northern country, as in other countries where Canadian troops are stationed, all possible facilities that will ensure the maximum of comfort and welfare for the men. Legion education services will also be available and already a large shipment of Icelandic phrase books have been forwarded to those enrolled in study courses.

Mr. Burden, a veteran of the first Great War and well known in the Maritimes as a high school teacher and sports director, has left for Iceland.

Break with Tradition
In the appointment of Harold Riley, prominent Winnipeg lawyer and businessman, as brigadier and Officer Commanding Military District No. 10 at Winnipeg, the defence department broke with tradition.

Only rarely, in the past, has such a senior appointment fallen to other than a member of the permanent force.

Last Monday Colonel Ralston in his speech in the House of Commons said: "We must enlist and use the ablest men on staff and in executive positions which this country can provide."

Brigadier Riley, who won the Distinguished Service Order and two bars during the last war, is at present at Kingston and will return to Winnipeg shortly to take over his new duties.

He won all his decorations as a battalion officer in the line either in command of a company or of a battalion. He served at the front continuously from September 17, 1915, until the end of the war, with the exception of a brief period in 1916 when he was wounded.

Former Victorian Killed
News has been received of the death of Trooper John Walter Hillyer, 22-year-old Vancouver youth, who served with a British armored unit in France, has been received by his guardian here, H. G. Barnett.

Formerly with the D.C.O.R. in Vancouver and known in Victoria military circles, he died May 20 of wounds received in France, said a telegram from his regimental headquarters in England. He was born in Calgary, but lived with his guardian in Vancouver and Victoria since a child.

Robert Service Victoria-bound

AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—Returning after 28 years to scenes he pictured in poetry, Robert W. Service, gentle-spoken, mild-mannered Englishman, who wrote tough bar-room philosophy, sees no inspiration for works on "this horrible war."

The widely-read author of "Songs of a Sourdough" and other Yukon poems, debarked here today with his wife and daughter and left immediately for Vancouver Island, where they expect to make their home.

No News From Vimy

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Minister J. L. Ralston informed T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto-Broadview, in the Commons that no definite information had been received about the reported destruction by the Germans of the Vimy Memorial in France.

(In a report from London on June 1, the Canadian Press quoted British Tommies back from Flanders as saying the memorial had been shattered by Nazi dive bombers.)

Defend New Guinea

CANBERRA (CP)—The Australian government ordered the former German colony of New Guinea, now an Australian mandate, included in the Commonwealth defence system today.

Tax Payments 10 per cent Up

Current tax collections to the end of July stand over 10 per cent above those for the similar period in 1939, according to figures compiled today by the assessor-collector's department.

Up to last night the city had received a total of $820,023.21 of the 1940 levy. That figure was $75,963.96 above the $744,059.25 collected at July 31 last year.

In the arrears division collections this year continued ahead of last year, despite the fact a smaller amount was outstanding at the beginning of 1940 than at the start of 1939.

Actual collections through that channel to date amount to $110,293.46, a figure $2,021.77 above the $108,276.69 received at July 31, 1939.

The results of payments in both divisions were exceptionally gratifying to the city department, particularly in view of the doubt raised over future payments when new war taxes were imposed.

They served to prove in the current division the value of the prepayment system which has been generally adopted. Under that scheme property owners meeting their obligations in advance, either in whole or in part, enjoy a special interest allowance of 5 per cent per annum from the date of payment to the date taxes actually fall due.

THIEF FLEES AFTER ROBBERY ATTEMPT

City police today were investigating an attempted robbery successfully frustrated last night by Mr. Constable, 1803 Chambers Street, a service station employee.

Mr. Constable reported to police he was hit over the head with a piece of rubber hose while driving home after business with the day's takings in his car.

Mr. Constable said he had driven a friend home after closing time and was returning to his own home. He stopped at a store at Grant and Quadra Streets and just as he was about to get out he was struck from behind.

He told police the man must have hid in the back of his car for about an hour before the attack took place.

After being struck Mr. Constable turned quickly and grabbed his assailant but was unable to hold him. The man jumped from the car and fled. The money Mr. Constable was carrying was placed in the police safe overnight.

The annual aged pensioner's picnic will be held at Beacon Hill Park next Tuesday afternoon. All those who wish to use their cars for this event should arrange same by phoning Albert W. Davies at Empire 7441, or call at the Empire Realty, 1008 Broad Street.

Quash Conviction On Drunk Driving

Conviction against Patrick Leo Mahoney, sentenced to seven days, originally with hard labor, on a charge of driving while intoxicated, was quashed by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in Supreme Court Chambers today upon a habeas corpus application made by Joseph McKenna.

Mr. McKenna contended the first warrant of commitment issued by Police Magistrate Henry Hall was bad, the sentence illegal, and that the prisoner, freed on bail before an amended warrant was issued, had passed beyond the magistrate's jurisdiction. He cited a ruling of Chief Justice Hunter to support his argument. The ruling was accepted.

W. B. Colvin appeared for the crown.

SECOND APPEAL ON DEFENCE RULES

The campaign of British Columbia authorities against fifth column activities has taken a new and firmer turn, it was indicated today when the Attorney-General's department decided to appeal the dismissal of Reinhardt Kluge at Kamloops on a charge under the Defence of Canada Regulations. It was the second appeal announced this week.

Kluge, a member of the Rocky Mountain Rangers, was alleged to have been a former member of the German army. A Kamloops magistrate dismissed the charge of making statements calculated to cause disaffection. The crown has decided to take the case to a higher court and seek a conviction.

Today the Attorney-General's department filed the appeal in the case of Peter George Hartnell of Victoria, who was sentenced to three months after conviction under the defence regulations. The crown is asking a stiffer sentence. The case will come up before County Court Judge H. H. Shandley.

4-MONTH TERM

Cecil Clifton, convicted in city police court yesterday on a charge of indecently assaulting a young girl, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment by Magistrate Hall this morning.

Evidence of the prosecution was that Clifton attacked the girl while she was walking in Beacon Hill Park. The girl outwitted him, led him to a friend's home from where police were called who later arrested him.

Dies in New York

NEW YORK (CP)—Charles Mann, 63, of 914 Pender Street West, Vancouver, was found dead in bed in his room in the Belmont Plaza Hotel in midtown here today. Death was due to natural causes, the hotel physician said. Mann had been staying at the hotel since June.

ASK FUN FUNDS FOR SERVICES

Plans for the creation of a special fund to provide entertainment and other facilities for men on active service in all branches of the forces while they are billeted in Victoria on leave or on duty, were announced by Mayor Andrew McGavin today.

First steps in the matter, he said, would be the appointment of a special committee to organize methods of raising money.

The scheme here is parallel to that established in Halifax and discussed by the mayor of the eastern port during the recent mayors' conference in Ottawa. At that meeting Mayor McGavin stated a similar condition existed in the concentration of fighting men in Victoria.

Halifax is seeking financial assistance throughout Canada on the grounds such services are national in scope. Mayor McGavin voiced the opinion the same argument could be put forward in this city.

Just what machinery will be set up to handle the matter will be left for discussion by the special committee when it is appointed.

COURT DISMISSES APARTMENT CASE

Efforts of the Gainsboro Apartments Ltd. to secure a court order requiring the city building inspector to issue a permit for conversion of premises at 906 St. Charles Street into an apartment house were blocked today and the case was dismissed by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in Supreme Court Chambers.

The court, however, gave the plaintiff leave to start again "as if nothing had happened."

Preliminary objections to the application were raised by F. L. Shaw, city solicitor, assisted at the hearing by H. W. Davey, on the grounds the incorrect method had been adopted to secure a mandamus order calling for the ruling to grant a permit, that no affidavit had been filed to show the matter was urgent and that M. B. Jackson, K.C., appearing with Gordon Cameron for the Gainsboro interests, had ignored certain interested party regulations in having affidavits sworn before his partner.

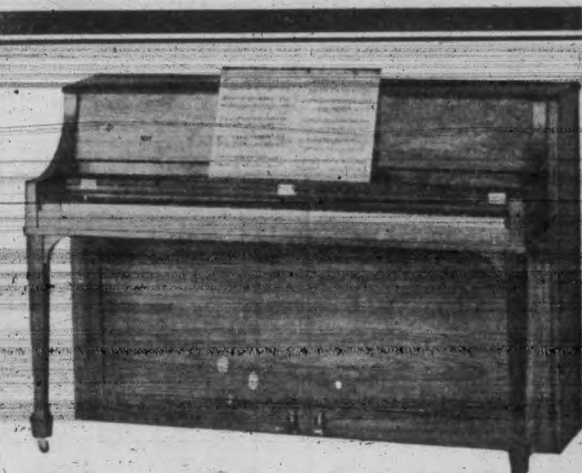

Mr. Justice McDonald sustained the objections, made under rules governing applications for such orders.

COAL MINING IN PEACE RIVER

Mining of 2,000 tons of coal at Hudson Hope in the Peace River area was authorized in a provincial order-in-council today.

License has been granted to George A. Packwood with the royalty fixed at 40 cents a ton.

The coal is to supply local demand. Present supplies have to be brought into the district.

'STRANGE FACES' ON PLAZA SCREEN

That the new comedy combination of Dorothea Kent and Frank Jenks intends to take a place among the outstanding teams of the screen is evidenced by the stellar work of the pair in Universal's "Strange Faces," which opens today at the Plaza Theatre.

The Kent-Jenks team, which sparkled in "Youth Takes a Fling," has won the co-starring assignment in "Strange Faces."

Andy Devine contributes a bit comedy portrayal as the small town editor, and Robert Cavanaugh, Frank M. Thomas, Renie Riano, Leon Ames and Mary Treen are others in the capable cast.

Errol Taggart directed from the screen play by Charles Grayson and the original story by Cornelius Reece and Arndt Guisti.

'FLORIAN' GREAT FILM SPECTACLE

Thundering drama of the glories and collapse of an empire, against which is told a tender love story, comes tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre in "Florian," cavalcade of world turmoil, based on Felix Salten's noted novel.

The picture traces Austria's collapse after the World War through its effects on the lovers and a magnificent Lippizan stallion, owned by Emperor Franz Josef. The story opens in the romantic imperial social affairs, reviews of the emperor's horses and other spectacles.

Robert Young and Helen Gilbert play a groom in the imperial stables and a duchess, who, through mutual love for Florian, the horse, find themselves in love, a romance forbidden by their difference in social station.

The war, revolution, and collapse of the Hapsburg dynasty sweep away social differences as the three are reunited abroad.

ATLAS SHOWS '20 MULE TEAM'

Creating a new character team, Wallace Beery and Marjorie Rambeau get off to such an auspicious start in "20 Mule Team" that a continuation of the teaming appears inevitable. They are appearing in the film at the Atlas Theatre.

And when the name of Leo Carillo is added to the twosome, as in "20 Mule Team," you can make the duo a trio from now on.

OAK BAY FEATURES '5 LITTLE PEPPERS'

"Five Little Peppers," a delightful and humorous story that provides plenty of entertainment for the family, will open tonight at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Edith Fellows, popular young Hollywood screen star, plays the leading role.

Pole Convicted

COURTENAY (CP)—William Herchuk, Polish-born miner at Bevan, B.C., was sentenced to six months in jail when convicted in police court here yesterday of distributing printed matter likely to prejudice efficient prosecution of the war.

A British Columbia resident for 29 years, he was interned during the last war. Witnesses included the man's neighbors and members of the armed forces.

The Victoria Women's Institute will hold a basket-plate tomorrow afternoon at 2 at the Japanese Tea Gardens, The Gorge. This will take the place of the outing arranged for August 14.

Alcantara Puts Into Rio Harbor

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The British merchant cruiser Alcantara, damaged in a sea fight with a German raider in the south Atlantic, entered the harbor here today.

It was reported the 22,200-ton vessel would dock at a shipyard on the island of Vianna for repairs.

British craft presumably were continuing pursuit of the raider, as indicated in an Admiralty statement in London yesterday. An embassy statement said the sea battle was fought near the Brazilian island of Trinidad—well within the American neutrality zone—and that both ships were hit, the Alcantara suffering "slight damage." The embassy said the raider mounted eight six-inch guns.

(New York shipping circles said the circumstances suggested the raider was the 10,000-ton Narvik, understood to carry six 6-inch guns. The Alcantara mounts 10 guns of undisclosed calibre.)

London Docks Work Normally

LONDON (CP)—The London docks—biggest in the world—functioned normally today and British officials said the volume of traffic was reduced not by German bombs or threats but by the natural inroads of war on the world's shipping.

Behind busy city streets, just a few miles from the harried shipping lanes of the English Channel, cargo ships from the seven seas were loading and unloading today as if the war didn't exist, swinging out meat and wool and swinging in manufactured goods. The guns mounted on the ships reminded onlookers of the dangerous passage through seas in wartime, but the defenses of the port are so well concealed that the area does not appear as warlike as the central area of London, with all its barred wire barricades and pillboxes.

When Ronald H. Cross, Minister of Shipping, spoke of the government's readiness to readjust Britain's port facilities, he was not prompted by any disruption in the great maze of quays stretching along the 26 miles of the Thames from Tilbury to London Bridge.

TO FLY BOMBERS ACROSS ATLANTIC

AN EASTERN CANADIAN PORT (CP)—Three Imperial Airways' long-distance fliers were passengers on a liner which docked here yesterday from the United Kingdom.

The trio, Capt. Arthur Wilcockson, D. C. T. Bennett and I. G. Ross, an erstwhile "bush flier" from Montreal, will pilot bombers to the United Kingdom from this side of the Atlantic. All declined to discuss their mission.

SUCTION JERKED DIVER TO DEATH

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP)—Powerful underwater suction jerked a helmeted diver to death through more than 75 feet of 24-inch pipe at the new United States navy yard drydock here yesterday.

The victim was W. O. Whipple, 32. He was a regular diver at the yard, and had been loaned to the company which was making installations on the dock's pumping plant.

A foreman at the scene said the tragedy occurred when Whipple had gone down to cap the face of the new dock to cap the outlet pipe from the pump well, so repairs could be made on a break.

Whipple was sucked in feet first through 40 feet of horizontal pipe, around two right-angle turns and down 35 feet. His helmet was jerked off. A medical attendant said his neck probably was broken. Two and a half hours were required to remove him from the pipe. He was dead upon being taken to the navy yard hospital.

CRAFT TAKEN ON PREWAR BASIS

OTTAWA (CP)—Prewar values are to be the basis of compensation of owners of vessels and aircraft taken by the government for war purposes under a bill introduced in the House of Commons today by Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, acting Justice Minister.

The bill, heavily detailed, follows the principles of a similar measure adopted in the United Kingdom last year. Where ships are requisitioned, payment will be made periodically, rather than in lump sum, because of the uncertainty of the duration of the war.

The bill also provides that any expenses involved will be repaid and any damage in excess of fair wear and tear or due to special war risk will be paid at the end of the period.

Mr. Cardin explained that there was now no such thing as a market value, because the government was practically the only buyer of ships or aircraft.

T. L. Church, Conservative Toronto Broadview, complained that several Great Lakes ships had been scrapped and sold to the United States, Germany and Japan.

Tourist Travel Booming Again

VANCOUVER (CP)—Outside tourist travel in British Columbia was described today as "frankly marvelous" by travel bureau officials, who said that American travelers had begun to arrive again in large numbers.

R. H. Baker, secretary of the Vancouver Tourist Association, and Frank Bird, secretary of the Automobile Association of B.C., said that although American tourist travel here has increased, prairie visitors, diverted from American trips, by passport regulations account for the present flow.

Fire Threatened Seaplane Tender

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Fire broke out last night on the $12,000,000 United States navy seaplane tender Albatross, berthed in the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation on the Delaware River here, but was extinguished without major damage.

The blaze caught scaffolding inside one of the two main stacks of the 9,000-ton tender, launched July 13 and scheduled for completion next March.

Company officials said there is "no suspicion of sabotage," but a spokesman asserted the Federal Bureau of Investigation would make a "routine" inquiry "as in all such cases."

Frederick Cornell, company press representative, reported the fire was caused by sparks from an electric welder being used on top of the funnel.

Thirteen ships are under construction at the yard, including the battleship South Dakota, seven cruisers, two other seaplane tenders, a destroyer tender and a repair ship.

Destroyer Sunk By Air Attack

LONDON (CP)—The Admiralty announced last night the loss of the destroyer Delight as a result of enemy air attack.

The Admiralty's statement said:

"The secretary of the Admiralty regrets to announce that the destroyer H.M.S. Delight (C.M.R. M. M. Fogg-Elliott, D.S.O., R.N.), sustained damage as a result of enemy air attack and subsequently sank. The loss of life was small. Next of kin of casualties have been informed."

The destroyer's normal complement was 145 men.

The destroyer Delight was one of the "defender" class which formed part of the 1930 naval building program. She was armed with four 4.7-inch and seven smaller guns and eight 21-inch torpedo tubes.

Laid down in April, 1931, she was launched in June of the following year and completed at the end of January, 1933.

DAMAGE AT NARVIK TOTALS MILLIONS

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Damage totaling millions of dollars was wrought at Narvik, Norwegian Arctic iron port, by the struggle between Allied and German forces last spring, a correspondent of the newspaper Aftenposten reports.

"The harbor is a real ship graveyard, with masts and funnels sticking up from the surface everywhere, demanding the greatest care when navigating," the correspondent said.

"One hundred and fifty-one buildings valued at $2,000,000 were destroyed in the central part of the city and 214 other structures were so damaged that they must be pulled down."

"The Lofoten Railway carrying iron ore from Sweden was damaged to the extent of $5,000,000."

The correspondent said no figures were available for casualties among the 8,000 inhabitants, few of whom were allowed by the Germans to leave the city during the fighting.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Trading on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today was limited to a few routine local transactions in October futures at the pegged minimum level of 73½ cents. December futures did not open.

No trades for exports were reported and mill buying was absent.

Wheat prices at Chicago rallied to stand ¼ higher just before noon. Buenos Aires prices remained unchanged.

A little interest was shown in various grades in cash wheat but volume was very small. Spreads were generally unchanged.

Flax was entirely neglected in the coarse grain pit while in other grains trades were largely routine. A little domestic support was noted in oats and barley.

Leonardo Planned Diving Suit and Fireworks

Sixty-seven years, marked the length of life of Leonardo da Vinci. His last years were spent in France, where he was treated with great kindness by the King, Francis I.

In France he was provided with a home surrounded by gardens and fishponds. There were many acres in the estate, and it had meadows and woodlands. He also had a studio where he could draw or paint when he chose.

Death of Leonardo at the year 1519

Nine days before his death, Leonardo made a will, and in it he said all his books and papers were to go to Francesco da Melzi, gentlemen, of Milan.

The writings which he left were the work of many years. They contained a number of plans and ideas which he had not told to the world. Melzi kept them in the attic of his home, and left them to his son.

Some of the writings were given away by the son, and a long time passed before an attempt was made to gather them for study.

Leonardo set down ways for making "mixtures for fireworks." He told about fossils he had found in the Alps mountains. He gave plans for making cannon.

Tests in clock making were made by this great, many-sided man. He wrote a book on different kinds of mills, and put in drawings of millwheels.

Among his inventions was a new kind of wheelbarrow, a diving suit, and a boat to be moved by paddle-wheels worked by men. He also planned a machine for making coins and a saw which would cut stone.

An odd thing about Leonardo was his custom of writing from right to left. He was able to write the other way, but seldom did so. To read his writing it was necessary for a person to look at it in a mirror.

So we come to the end of our stories about Leonardo da Vinci. He shines in human history like a bright star.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2

Benefic aspects again rule. It is a date most auspicious for all forms of publicity. Merchants should advertise generously. Minds should be clear and judgment trustworthy under this rule of the stars.

Women will find much to do in work for the public welfare. New leaders of remarkable ability will arise to direct service in national efforts to aid humanity and to extend wise hospitality to refugees. This is a lucky day for romance. The young will find evening festivities fortunate. Despite the world's distress weddings will increase, as the idea of finding happiness on the wing prevails. Under this sway household accidents may be numerous.

Strikes and uprisings will complicate war problems for the British Empire. Mutinies and riots are prognosticated for England as well as Ireland. Before the autumn the situation in the Dutch East Indies will assume special significance. A serious earthquake in Italy is foretold, while Japan also will suffer from a violent eruption. A British statesman of wide fame will reach the close of his career.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of perplexities. Life may be more than usually serious in its aspects to men and women.

Children born on this day may be highly intellectual and possessed of remarkable memory. They probably will be as modest as they are talented, kindly and lovable in nature.

Baron Fined

LONDON (CP)—Lord Faringdon, of Buscot Park, was fined £40 ($188) and £10 ($44.50) for failing to comply with a Ministry of Agriculture order to plough within a specified time, land on one of his farms. The order was issued under the defence regulations.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a man nearly 50. Recently I met a young woman whom I am attempting to help choose the right way of life. My wife seriously objects to my interest in her, although she is only a little older than our child. I have endeavored to show my wife that our friendship is wholesome and that this girl is worth the hours I spend with her. This is the first time my wife has ever shown symptoms of jealousy and it has made our home very unhappy. What would you suggest?

Answer: I would earnestly suggest that you modify your efforts to help the young woman choose the right way of life before it engulfs you and your wife and her in a scandal.

There is nothing more dangerous than a pious flirtation, because it is so easy to deceive oneself about one's motives and to think they are purely spiritual when they are really carnal.

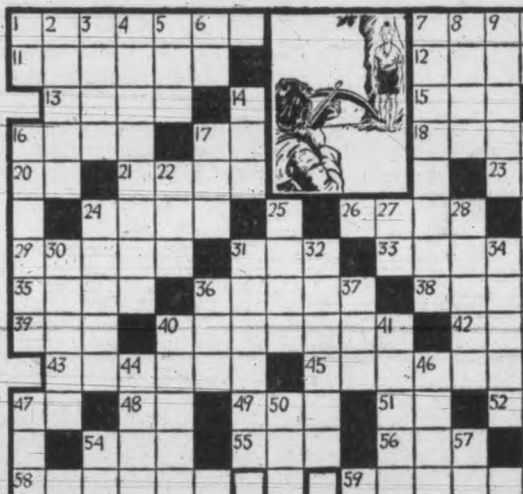

Evidently you are doing this and you have pulled the wool so successfully over your eyes that you don't see that you are heading straight down the primrose path.

Of course, you talk to the young girl about her soul instead of her heart, but it all means love-making, and you are getting just the same kick out of it that any other middle-aged philanderer does when he finds that some little cutie goes starry-eyed about him, and looks up to him as if he were the seventh wonder of the world.

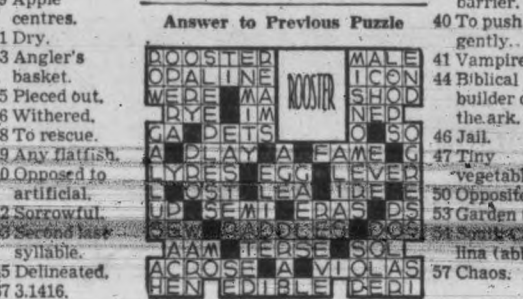

Otherwise, you wouldn't find it necessary to spend hours and hours and hours with her erecting warning posts before her and telling her to watch her step. If she were homely and elderly, a few plain, simple directions, which you could say in one mouthful, would suffice.

Your wife is absolutely right in her objections to your absorption in this girl. She is trying to save you from trouble, and you will do well to heed her advice. Shepherding ewe lambs who are young and fluffy and cuddly and have blue ribbons around their necks is a dangerous occupation for a middle-aged man.

'No Quarter' Story Denied in Britain

LONDON (CP)—Military sources here termed "absolutely untrue" a report published in New York that a general order had been issued to army, navy and air force directing that in the event of invasion the rule shall be "no prisoners, no quarter, no mercy."

The report appeared in the New York Daily News yesterday in an article purporting to review steps taken by Britain to beat back invasion.

The story said that "upwards of 200 new secret airdromes have been completed." On this score it was said in London that presumably many have been built since the war started, but naturally their number and location remains secret.

With the co-operation of 88 manufacturers, institutions and technical societies, the U.S. Iron Alloys Committee of the Engineering Foundation has assembled hitherto inaccessible information from the scientific and technical literature of many nations, at a cost of over $250,000.

Reunion Their Happiness

No happiness can run as deep as that of reunion between parents and their young child, particularly when that child was last seen bobbing about in a lifeboat, while the father and mother remained behind on a sinking vessel. That is the happiness known to Prof. and Mrs. David Cass-Beggs, who were without word of their bright little daughter, Rosemary Diana, for five days after the torpedoing of the Athenia last September.

Rosemary was thrown into one of the earlier lifeboats to get away from the disabled craft. Her father and mother escaped in a later boat. The waves of fortune eventually carried Rosemary to Canada aboard the City of Flint. The parents came weeks later to join her after an agonizing search through records of survivors to find her name.

The family of three reached Victoria this week for a recital by Mrs. Cass-Beggs, Barbara Cass, as she is known on the concert stage, at the summer school today. They are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Alton Peebles, Tudor Road, while in Victoria.

ASLEEP WHEN TORPEDO HIT

"We were below in our state room when the first torpedo hit

Rosemary, our daughter, was asleep. When we roused her and reached the deck we were well behind crowds seeking seats in the lifeboats," said Prof. Cass-Beggs.

"We thought the ship would sink quickly and we handed Rosemary over the heads of the crowd to others, who passed her to a sailor at the rail. He threw her over the side to a sailor in a boat below. We last saw her sitting in the boat. It was the most severe wrench I have ever experienced," Mrs. Cass-Beggs added.

"For five days we were without word of her. We were able to get away in another boat and were picked up by the Norwegian, Knute Nelson, and taken to Galway, Ireland. From Galway we went to Glasgow to search for our child, but could not find her. We were told the City of Flint had picked up some survivors, but there was reportedly no one aboard called Cass-Beggs. We looked through the list and found Rosemary, Oxford." We were sure it was our Rosemary," she added.

The Cass-Beggs immediately cabled Dr. James Gibson, Victoria Rhodes Scholar, a friend from Oxford days, at that time in eastern Canada. They could not say enough in appreciation of his actions in caring for the youngster when she arrived.

Both the parents and the child were afloat in lifeboats for eight hours before they were picked up. In her craft little Rosemary, enjoying some of her mother's gift of song, helped cheer the survivors with popular airs. On the City of Flint she also sang, once softly for the passengers and once loudly "so mummy could hear." In their lifeboat Mrs. Cass-Beggs also tried to cheer her fellow survivors with song, but seasickness and an unfortunate choice of selections "such as 'My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean'" considerably dampened her ardor, she said.

HOW TO CROSS OCEAN

Despite the harrowing experience, the little child, a bright little tot who tells you she likes everybody, has suffered no serious psychological reaction with the possible exception of a slight fear of death. She has, however, a quaint idea of the manner in which a person crosses from England to Canada.

"First you take a taxi to a big boat, then you get into a little boat and then back onto a bigger boat and then a bigger one still," she explains. That is the way she crossed the Atlantic and to her that is the usual way to cross the ocean.

Too young possibly to realize the terrors of the situation, the little miss was highly mortified over the fact she lost the bottom half of her pyjamas when she was removed from the Athenia to the lifeboat.

The family is happy in Canada, has enjoyed a lengthy tour through the United States and plans to settle in Toronto where Professor Cass-Beggs holds a post in the Faculty of Applied Science at the University of Toronto. Mrs. Cass-Beggs, having overcome the handicap of losing virtually all her music aboard the Athenia, plans to continue concerts in the east. The child, attending a nursery school when not on vacation, will be educated in Canada.

The Burns Club annual picnic at Goldstream Falls will be held next Wednesday. Buses will leave the Vancouver Coach Lines Depot at 2 p.m. and will be provided but members are asked to take their own baskets and dishes. Those wishing to reserve seats on the buses are requested to phone either E. M. Whyte,

Summer School

Soprano Heard In Last Recital

The special cultural program arranged by Harold Campbell, director of the Summer School of Education, for teachers assembled here during the last five weeks, drew to a close today with a recital which in every way maintained the high standard of performances achieved by previous artists.

In the High School auditorium this morning, Barbara Cass, English lyric soprano, who lost her music when the Athenia went down and since then has been busily engaged reassembling her programs, lent her talents to a wide range of selections in a presentation that was thoroughly delightful.

The artist opened with a group of folk and traditional songs, singing "The Lark in the Morn" as a sample of the English type, "Dream of Little Rhys," typifying the Welsh, "I Know Where I'm Goin'" as her Irish selection and "Love of My Heart" and "Spinning Song" as samples of the Manx. "Can Ye Sew Cushions" and "The Cockle Gatherers" were artistically rendered to illustrate the beauties of the Scotch and Hebridean songs, respectively.

She was well received in three compositions by Dr. Arne, "The Maiden's Lament," "When Daisies Pled" and "Where the Bee Sucks,"

In the latter she used Vaughan Williams' "Linden Lea," Michael Head's "Sweet Chance," John Ireland's "The Salley Gardens," Roger Quilter's "The Spring Is At the Door," Arnold Bax's "Youth" and Edward Elgar's "The Shepherd Song."

For her closing group she chose children's songs, including John Ireland's "Red in Summer," Martin Shaw's "Cuckoo," Eleanor Farjeon's "Shepherdess Walk" and "May Fair," C. V. Stanford's "A Little Snowdrop" and Walford Davies' "When Child Plays."

Haida Indians Help Air Drive

Victoria's air supremacy campaign has spread as far north as the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The Haida Indians, inhabitants of the islands, received word of the efforts being made here to raise funds to buy training planes for the Royal Canadian Air Force and decided to join the cause.

Five hundred dollars is the objective set by the Queen Charlotte Indians to be added to the funds which have been collected already. A money order for $50 was the first installment of the $500 received yesterday by Air Commodore A. Earl Godfrey, chief of the Western Air Command.

Acting chief councillor of the Haida tribe in the absence of Solomon Wilson, Henry Greene called the councillors together after hearing of the local drive, and it was soon decided to take part in the campaign.

A "subscription dance" was held and the people were told of the need for money to purchase planes. They solemnly pledged their support in the raising of $500.

The $50 which has been forwarded was raised at the dance and when the fishermen return home in about a month's time, those in charge are certain of collecting the remaining $450.

Coal Director Dies

EDMONTON (CP)—R. G. Drinnan, 66, managing director of Luscar Collieries Ltd. and Mount Park Collieries Ltd. for almost 20 years before his retirement in 1938, died here yesterday from a heart ailment.

He held numerous mining posts in the west Kootenay district of British Columbia, southern Alberta and Cadomin, Alta., before taking over the two mines in the Coal Branch district, 200 miles west of Edmonton. He was a recognized authority on western coal problems.
